Box , Austin, Texas , www. Each active real estate broker and sales agent shall provide: For purposes of this section, business website means a website on the internet that: For purposes of providing the link required under subsection b 1 on a social media platform, the link may be located on: License holders may reproduce the IABS Notice published by the Commission, provided that the text of the IABS Notice is copied verbatim and the spacing, borders and placement of text on the page must appear to be identical to that in the published version of the IABS Notice, except that the Broker Contact Information section may be prefilled. ADR Proceduresâ€”Alternatives to judicial forums or administrative agency contested case proceedings for the voluntary settlement of contested matters through the facilitation of an impartial third-party. Applicantâ€”Any person seeking a license, certificate, registration, approval or permit from the Commission. Complainantâ€”Any person who has filed a complaint with the Commission against any person whose activities are subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. Licenseâ€”The whole or part of any registration, license, certificate, approval, permit, or similar form of permission required or permitted by law issued by the Commission. Partyâ€”A person admitted to participate in a case before the Commission or the Administrator. Personâ€”Any individual, partnership, corporation, or other legal entity, including a state agency or governmental subdivision. Pleadingâ€”A written document submitted by a party, or a person seeking to participate in a case as a party, which requests procedural or substantive relief, makes claims, alleges facts, makes legal argument, or otherwise addresses matters involved in the case. Respondentâ€”Any person, licensed or unlicensed, who has been charged with violating a law that establishes a regulatory program administered by the Commission or a rule or order issued by the Commission. Sanctionsâ€”Any administrative penalty, disciplinary or remedial action imposed by the Commission for violations of Texas Occupations Code, Chapter , , or or the Rules adopted by the Commission pursuant to those chapters. This subchapter governs the institution, conduct, and determination of adjudicative proceedings required or permitted by law, whether instituted by the Commission or by the filing of an application, claim, complaint, or any other pleading. This subchapter does not enlarge, diminish, modify, or otherwise alter the jurisdiction, powers, or authority of the Commission, the Administrator, or the substantive rights of any person or agency. An applicant may accept the denial or make a written request for a hearing on that denial. If after investigation of a possible violation and the facts surrounding that possible violation the Commission determines that a violation has occurred, the Commission may issue a written Notice of Alleged Violation to the Respondent. The Commission shall provide notice in accordance with the APA. Not later than the 30th day after the date on which the Notice of Alleged Violation is sent, the Respondent may: Upon receipt of a written request for hearing, the Commission shall submit a request to docket case to SOAH accompanied by copies of relevant documents giving rise to a contested case. If an apprentice inspector or real estate inspector is a Respondent, the Commission will notify the sponsoring professional inspector of the hearing. Notice under this subsection need not be provided by certified or registered mail. This presumption is rebuttable. Failure to claim properly addressed certified or registered mail will not support a finding of nondelivery. SOAH rules relating to Default Proceedings and Dismissal Proceedings apply when a Respondent or Applicant fails to appear on the day and time set for administrative hearing. If the administrative law judge issues an order dismissing the case from the SOAH docket or issues a default Proposal for Decision, the factual allegations against the Respondent or Applicant filed at SOAH are admitted and the Commission shall enter a default order against the Respondent or Applicant as set out in the Notice of Hearing sent to the Respondent or Applicant. No additional proof is required to be submitted to the Commission before the Commission enters the final order. Cost of a transcript of a SOAH proceeding ordered by the administrative law judge are split equally between the parties. A party or witness who needs an interpreter or translator is responsible for making the request under SOAH rules. The cost of the interpreter or translator is borne by the party requesting the service. Exceptions and replies are filed with SOAH with a copy served on the opposing party. The Proposal for Decision may be amended by the administrative law judge pursuant to the exceptions and replies submitted by the parties. If the Commission remands the case to the administrative law judge, the Commission may direct that further consideration be accomplished with or without reopening the hearing and may limit the issues to be considered. If, on remand, additional evidence is admitted that results in a substantial revision of the Proposal for Decision, or the underlying facts, the administrative law judge shall prepare an amended or supplemental Proposal for Decision and this subchapter applies. Exceptions and replies are limited to items contained in the supplemental Proposal for Decision. The Proposal for Decision may be acted on by the Commission after the administrative law judge has ruled on any exceptions or replies to exceptions or on the day following the day exceptions or replies to exceptions were due if no such exceptions or replies were filed. Any party may request oral argument before the Commission before the final disposition of the contested case. An oral argument is conducted in accordance with paragraphs 1 - 5 of this subsection. The chairperson or the Commission member designated by the chairperson to preside the presiding member shall announce the case. Upon the request of any party, the presiding member may conduct a prehearing conference with the parties and their attorneys of record. The presiding member may announce reasonable time limits for any oral arguments presented by the parties. The hearing on the Proposal for Decision is limited to the record. New evidence may not be presented on the substance of the case unless the party submitting the evidence establishes that the new evidence was not reasonably available at the time of the original hearing or the party offering the evidence was misled by a party regarding the necessity for offering the evidence at the original hearing. In presenting an oral argument, the party bearing the burden of proof opens and closes. The party responding may offer a rebuttal argument. A party may request an opportunity for additional rebuttal subject to the discretion of the presiding member. After being recognized by the presiding member, the members of the Commission may ask questions of the parties. Questions must be limited to the record and to the arguments made by the parties. Upon the conclusion of oral arguments, questions by the members of the Commission, and any discussion by the member of the Commission, the presiding member shall call for a motion regarding disposition of the contested case. The presiding member may vote on the motion. A motion is granted only if a majority of the members present and voting vote in favor of the motion. In the event of a tie vote, the presiding member shall announce that the motion is overruled. It is the policy of the Commission to change a finding of fact or conclusion of law in a Proposal for Decision of an administrative law judge when the Commission determines: If the Commission does not follow the recommended sanctions in a Proposal for Decision, the order shall explain why the Commission chose not to follow the recommendation as stated in the record of the meeting. Final orders on contested cases shall be in writing and signed by the presiding officer of the Commission. Final orders shall include findings of fact and conclusions of law separately stated from disciplinary actions imposed and administrative penalties assessed. Parties will be notified and given a copy of the decision as provided by the APA. A decision is final as provided by the APA. If the Commission or the Executive Director finds that an imminent peril to the public health, safety, or welfare requires immediate effect of a final decision or order, that finding shall be recited in the decision or order as well as the fact that the decision or order is final and effective on the date signed. The decision or order is then final and appealable on the date signed and a motion for rehearing is not required as a prerequisite for appeal. A Commission member shall recuse himself or herself from all deliberations and votes regarding any matter: A motion for rehearing shall set forth the particular finding of fact, conclusion of law, ruling, or other action which the complaining party asserts caused substantial injustice to the party and was in error, such as violation of a constitutional or statutory provision, lack of authority, unlawful procedure, lack of substantial evidence, abuse of discretion, other error of law, or other good cause specifically described in the motion. In the absence of specific grounds in the motion, the Commission will take no action and the motion will be overruled by operation of law. Any party may request oral arguments before the Enforcement Committee prior to the final disposition of the motion for rehearing. If the Enforcement Committee grants a request for oral argument, oral arguments will be conducted in accordance with paragraphs 1 - 5 of this subsection. The chair of the Enforcement Committee or the member designated by the chair to preside the presiding member shall announce the case. The presiding member may announce reasonable time limits for any oral arguments to be presented by the parties. The hearing on the motion shall be limited to a consideration of the grounds set forth in the motion. Testimony by affidavit or documentary evidence, such as excerpts of the record before the presiding officer, may be offered in support of, or in opposition to, the motion; provided, however, a party offering affidavit testimony or documentary evidence must provide the other party with copies of the affidavits or documents at the time the motion is filed. New evidence may not be presented on the substance of the case unless the party submitting the evidenced can establish that the new evidence was not reasonably available at the time of the original hearing, or the party offering the evidence was misled by a party regarding the necessity for offering the evidence at the original hearing. In presenting oral arguments, the party filing the motion will have the burden of proof and persuasion and shall open and close. The party responding to the motion may offer rebuttal arguments. Parties may request an opportunity for additional rebuttal, subject to the discretion of the presiding member. After being recognized by the presiding member, the members of the Enforcement Committee may ask questions of the parties. Questions must be limited to the grounds asserted for the motion to be granted and to the arguments made by the parties. Upon the conclusion of oral arguments, questions by the members of the Enforcement Committee, and any discussion by the members of the Enforcement Committee, the presiding member shall call for a vote on the motion. A member of the Enforcement Committee need not make a separate motion or second a motion filed by a party. A motion may be granted only if a majority of the Enforcement Committee members are present and voting vote in favor of the motion. A party who appeals a final decision in a contested case must pay all costs for the preparation of the original or a certified copy of the record of the agency proceeding that is required to be transmitted to the reviewing court. If, after judicial review, the administrative penalty is reduced or not assessed, the Executive Director shall remit to the person charged the appropriate amount, plus accrued interest if the administrative penalty has been paid, or shall execute a release of the bond if a supersedeas bond has been posted. The accrued interest on amounts remitted by the Executive Director under this subsection shall be paid at a rate equal to the rate charged on loans to depository institutions by the New York Federal Reserve Bank, and shall be paid for the period beginning on the date that the assessed administrative penalty is paid to the Commission and ending on the date the administrative penalty is remitted. The last day of the period so computed is to be included, unless it is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday. The Commission is committed to working with all parties to achieve early settlement of contested matters and encourages resolution of disputes at any time. Negotiations may be conducted in person, by phone, or through any form of written communication. A respondent may request an informal conference; however, the decision to hold a conference shall be made by the Director of Standards and Enforcement Services. An informal conference shall be voluntary and shall not be a prerequisite to a formal hearing. An informal conference may be conducted in person, or by electronic, telephonic, or written communication. Notice shall be provided by certified mail no less than ten days prior to the date of the conference to the last known mailing address of the respondent. The ten days shall begin on the date of mailing. The respondent may waive the ten-day notice requirement. The notice shall inform the respondent of the following: The notice of the informal conference shall be sent to the complainant at his or her last known mailing address. The complainant shall be informed that he or she may appear in person or may submit a written statement for consideration at the informal conference. The conference shall be informal and need not follow the procedures established in this chapter for contested cases and formal hearings. The staff attorney assigned to the case shall attend each informal conference. The Commission member or other staff member may call upon the attorney at any time for assistance in the informal conference. No formal record of the proceedings of the informal conference shall be made or maintained. The complainant shall not be considered a party in the informal conference but shall be given the opportunity to be heard if the complainant attends.

Box , Olympia, WA 2 Telephone number: As used in these rules unless otherwise required by context: Specifically, abatement includes, but is not limited to: Furthermore, abatement does not include interim controls, operations and maintenance activities, or other measures and activities designed to temporarily, but not permanently, reduce lead-based paint hazards. Those requirements include, but are not limited to, the following: Guidance policy is written to grandfather in all Washington state residents previously certified by EPA as renovators, dust sampling technicians, or Washington renovation firms into the department. Out-of-state residents are required to submit appropriate renovator, dust sampling technician, or renovation firm application and fee to the department. Child-occupied facilities may include, but are not limited to, day care centers, preschools and kindergarten classrooms. Child-occupied facilities may be located in target housing or in public or commercial buildings. With respect to common areas in public or commercial buildings that contain child-occupied facilities, the child-occupied facility encompasses only those common areas that are routinely used by children under age six, such as restrooms and cafeterias. Common areas that children under age six only pass through, such as hallways, stairways, and garages are not included. In addition, with respect to exteriors of public or commercial buildings that contain child-occupied facilities, the child-occupied facility encompasses only the exterior sides of the building that are immediately adjacent to the child-occupied facility or the common areas routinely used by children under age six. Common area groups include, but are not limited to, hallways, stairwells, and laundry rooms. These include, but are not limited to, interior components such as: Ceilings, crown molding, walls, chair rails, doors, door trim, floors, fireplaces, radiators and other heating units, shelves, shelf supports, stair treads, stair risers, stair stringers, newel posts, railing caps, balustrades, windows and trim including sashes, window heads, jambs, sills or stools and troughs , built in cabinets, columns, beams, bathroom vanities, counter tops, and air conditioners; and exterior components such as: Painted roofing, chimneys, flashing, gutters and downspouts, ceilings, soffits, fascias, rake boards, cornerboards, bulkheads, doors and door trim, fences, floors, joists, lattice work, railings and railing caps, siding, handrails, stair risers and treads, stair stringers, columns, balustrades, window sills or stools and troughs, casings, sashes and wells, and air conditioners. All course completion certificates are valid for six months from the course completion date. For example, "abatement worker" is a discipline. It is different than a refresher course. An inspector may also collect dust and soil samples to perform clearance testing. An inspector may cite the applicable standard for the medium being sampled, but may not evaluate the results or assess risk. The presence of play equipment e. An oral examination offered to a trainee with a manual disability is an example of a proficiency test. To be considered a separate room, the room must be separated from adjoining rooms by built-in walls or archways that extend at least six inches from an intersecting wall. Half walls or bookcases count as room separators if built-in. Movable or collapsible partitions or partitions consisting solely of shelves or cabinets are not considered built-in walls. A screened-in porch that is used as a living area is a room. Sample quality control also includes provisions for representative sampling and control samples. Its purpose is to give influence to a sample relative to the surface area it represents. A single surface sample is comprised of a single subsample. A composite sample may contain from
