In ARK: Survival Evolved pick seeds from the wild vegetation around you, plant them in plots that you lay down, water them and nurture them with fertilizer (everything poops after consuming calories, which can then be composted, and some fertilizer is better than others).

We now leave the story of re-creation and enter the scene of a garden. Neither can the story of Noah and his family in the garden setting of a renewed earth be appreciated fully without taking the temple as its background. Allusions to Garden of Eden and temple motifs begin as soon as Noah and his family leave the Ark. Though no analogs to the Tree of Life and the Tree of Knowledge are explicitly mentioned, an olive tree is implied in the story of the dove which returns to Noah with its branch. A variety of texts associate the olive tree with the Garden of Eden. Noah, not God, plants it. Moreover, the earmarks of celestial law are evident in the details of the commandments given to Noah. This involves the clean up after the old shed was removed and the work since then before the new shed could be erected. Then we had the clean-up of the rubbish that we found around the back of the oil tank which I had not known was there from moving into the house 4 years ago. Balls, plastic planters, bits of wood, bricks, old patio slabs, 2 swings! Added to this then was the taking care of the water connection and electric connections that had been inside the shed. These were there because of the little stone water feature on the decking. Fred measured out and cut the wood to make a wooden surround into which the concrete would be poured. He had to dig out a little bit of the ground at the back because the new shed was longer than the old one. He also had to make sure it was in exactly the right position. The old shed had been on a wooden base which had rotted but underneath that there was a large concrete slab. This was however too low for us to use for the new shed because we wanted the bottom of the shed level with the decking. Hence we needed to put another base on top of this original concrete. And this was the finished surround. Then came the day of the pouring of the cement and we were so glad to see this happen. But I forgot to start taking photos of the work until most of the cement had been offloaded. Notice we had to tie back the water tap while the cement went in and be careful about the placing of the electric cable. Although we got someone experienced in working with concrete to come and do this, Fred wanted to help as usual. The cement lorry was parked at the front of the house and they had to wheel the cement into the back garden in wheelbarrows along the path at the side of the house and through the small gate to the back. Then when the area was full it all had to be levelled off and then smoothed. For a few days we had to water the cement as it should not dry too quickly and then the wooden surround was removed and we had our concrete base ready for the new shed. This was rather disappointing as the decking is grey so there is a contrast with the cream! I did quite well!

3: Ark of the Covenant - Wikipedia

Noah built the ark in the land of Eden east of the garden, probably near the garden where one of the rivers ran out from the garden or in the cradle of civilization between the Euphrates and the Tigris rivers around where, after the flood, the tower of Babel was constructed.

Ron Wyatt crawling through the tunnel system which leads to the cave where the Ark of the Covenant is located today. Group assembled for work at the Ark of the Covenant excavation. Tunnel to the left. Perhaps over a hundred people over the years helped Ron at the site. Left, inside tunnel system. There were three large cut-outs in the escarpment wall behind the place where the featured victim, in this case Jesus, was crucified. On January 6, , after years of hard labor and excavation permits issued by the Israeli Department of Antiquities, Ron Wyatt crawled into the cave where the Ark was located. In this cave he also found the Table of Shewbread, the 7-branch lampstand, the Golden Altar of Incense, and the Golden Censer which all still remain there today. He brought out a very large sword, numerous oil lamps, a brass shekel weight, a brass ring, and an ephod. Any item Ron would find in the excavation he would turn over to the Israel Antiquities Authority, which he did. Today in the Israel Museum Jerusalem, you can see the ivory pomegranate Ron turned over to the IAA after bringing it out of the tunnel system that led to the cave that houses the Ark of the Covenant. It is a thumb-sized pomegranate believed to be used by the Temple priests during one of their ceremonies. Around the shoulder of the pomegranate is a carefully incised inscription in early Hebrew characters, part of which is broken off, and reads: It has a hollow cavity in the base for mounting on a rod or shaft. The shaft is now resting in the cave with the ark, placed there by Ron. The pomegranate was a favorite motif in the Temple of Solomon. After Ron gave this to the IAA in or , the department was subsequently plundered and many items stolen, including this wonderful find. In it appeared in a French magazine. This ivory pomegranate has been featured in many articles, first in , in the Biblical Archaeology Review while in the hands of the French, but no one has ever said where it was found. That is a mystery to most, but we know it was found in the tunnel system during the Ark of the Covenant dig. There is not an official, public dig associated with this find. Ron Wyatt left two parts of the pomegranate in the cave with the Ark of the Covenant. The shaft or rod of the pomegranate was left in the cave as evidence of where it came from, and also one of the leaves, to show folks later that the temple furnishings are associated with the ivory pomegranate. Israel Museum October , displaying the ivory pomegranate No photos allowed in the museum. Ron Wyatt with Dan Bahat When Ron first entered the cave, he noticed a dark substance that had dripped out of a crack in the ceiling directly above the Ark, onto the top of a stone sarcophagus, and down inside of it. The Ark was in a large stone sarcophagus and the top or lid of the stone case had been broken and moved aside, allowing the dark substance inside. The dark substance that was on the ceiling had dripped onto the top of the stone case and down inside onto the golden lid or Mercy Seat of the Ark of the Covenant. It was at this moment that Ron realized the cross hole above communicated down to this cave below via a fissure in the bedrock, and had allowed a dark substance to fall on the Ark. Ron passed out, as he realized that dark substance was the actual blood of Jesus! Ron was unconscious for 45 minutes, exhausted from double pneumonia and hard work. Inside the cave were the other furnishings of the Mosaic tabernacle, including the golden candlestick, the table of showbread, the altar of incense, plus a large sword that may have belonged to Goliath, and other items. Stacked on top of everything were animal skins then boards, then stones. The cut-outs in the escarpment behind the cross were apparently designed to hold signs relating to the person being executed. Surrounding the crucifixion site is the foundation of a first century church, and within this is the 13 ft. The cross hole that was used to crucify Christ has a large crack in the bedrock next to it which extends all the way down under the cross hole to a cave below. Jeremiah and his assistants wished to hide the furnishings of the tabernacle from the pagan invaders. When Christ died, "the rocks were rent," creating the crack in the bedrock leading down into the cave below. At this moment type met antitype. Both the old and new covenants were ratified by the blood of Jesus. At that moment the large, thick veil in the temple was torn by God from top to bottom and the sacrificial Passover lamb escaped, because Jesus was the final sacrifice. It is speaking of a place or thing, not a person. These words are used in the Bible in association with the Most Holy Place. Jesus was both the High Priest and sacrifice at his death. The Jews were given days 70 weeks x 7 and using the day for a year principle Numbers The Bible prophesied that Jesus Messiah the Prince v. The forces of darkness have placed this 70th week in the future where the antichrist would show up, but all that theory does is to ignore the beautiful sacrifice that Jesus did for us on Calvary. As he turned around he could see four men in the cave. They identified themselves as the four angels that had been guarding the ark since Moses put the ten commandments inside. He was stunned to see all the rock, boards, and other unnecessary items removed from the cave by these heavenly messengers. The furnishings were placed in their proper configuration in the cave. The wall in back of the Ark is pure crystal and reflects all the colors of the rainbow. The heavenly Ark has a rainbow over it. In the past, Ron had wondered how he would ever open the ark, as this would be a difficult task since the five ft. Now the angels in the cave asked Ron to position his video camera to film what was to happen next. The four angels lifted up the top of the Ark and said, "Reach in, take the Ten Commandments out. When a world-wide law is enforced forcing men to violate the Law of God, then they will be shown to mankind. The Ten Commandments are on two tablets of stone and have writing on both sides. They are written in Proto-Aramaic. They put the dark dried-out substance in saline solution for 72 hours, then added a growth medium to the blood for 48 hours. They could tell it was human blood, but "This blood is alive! They continued with their tests and found the blood to be unique from any other human blood! Each cell contained only 24 chromosomes compared to the normal count of 46 that you and I have. Christ received 23 chromosomes from Mary, and one "y" chromosome from His heavenly Father to designate a male child. Others in the lab were asked to come see for themselves. With tears in their eyes they asked, "Whose blood is this? Wyatt replied, "It is the blood of your Messiah. No other male human being has ever had this same chromosome count! When these tests are repeated for all the world to see, everyone will learn that Jesus was more than a preacher, He was and is the Son of God! And there are three that bear witness on earth; the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and these three agree as one. If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater, for this is the witness of God which He has testified of His Son. In due time, the blood will testify that Jesus is the Son of God. Everyone will be tested in their form of worship. Wyatt has theorized that the cave housing the Ark will be an eternal resting place for it, and may be part of the temple of the New Jerusalem where the , will visit when the earth is made new. When a law is passed forcing men to violate the law of God, independent genetic scientists will perform their own analysis of the blood of Christ and will reveal the test results to the world. Everyone will have an opportunity to see the Ark on video, and some people will be able to see the Ten Commandments in person. Everyone on earth will have an opportunity to accept Jesus as their Savior and ask forgiveness of their sins. Shortly after this the Lord will return. God is providing a simple yet effective show-and-tell demonstration to the world. Some will be moved to follow God, but the majority will continue following self and will not repent. The vast majority of the world have grown up in false forms of worship and need an opportunity to come into the truth and follow their Creator. Ron says we should wait until the Lord wants it revealed. He had taken hundreds of photos using 35mm, Polaroid, and video but they are were blurred because God did not want Ron to be showing this evidence at that time. Subsequently he was able to get clear photos of the ark, but he did not make them public. We know of someone who has clear photos of the temple furnishings. In approximately , there were six Jews who were descendants from the tribe of Levi, the caretakers of the ark in Moses day, who took it upon themselves, under the oversight of the department of Antiquities, to venture into the tunnel leading to the ark. Their intent was to remove the ark and begin animal sacrifices. Since the ark is not in Israeli controlled territory, but in occupied territory, they felt it necessary to move the Ark to their land. They were in contact with others outside the tunnel via two-way radio. Ron finally found and entered the cave that contained the Ark of the Covenant on January 6, On that trip his two sons became sick and had to return home early. Ron continued working in the cave system with only a young Arab boy as his assistant. He found a narrow vertical crevice in a rock wall too narrow for him to fit through but with a little work it was "just right" for his helper. The boy squeezed into the opening. From that point forward young boy refused to enter the cave system. He now lives outside Israel and because of governmental visitor regulations he cannot reenter the country. Christ was crucified up against what is known as the Calvary Escarpment, very near Golgotha and the Garden Tomb. When Christ died on the cross, "the rocks were rent. There is a vertical crack directly behind where the cross was placed. When Ron excavated down approximately 14 feet below present ground level at that location, he found the cross hole.

What are the approximate dimensions of The Garden Ark? Add a half foot or so all around for the upper dimensions, including the roof overhang. Click here for metric dimensions and questions specific to the metric versions of our plans. How many chickens will The Garden Ark house? The Garden Ark will house up to 3 standard breed hens, or you can customize it or add on for more. As with any backyard flock, it helps if you have only hens no roosters and that they have all been raised together. Is The Garden Ark suitable for cold climates? More than anything, chickens need excellent ventilation and fresh air all year. Damp bedding or trapped moisture and condensation from their exhaled breath can encourage mold and disease. The henhouse section of The Garden Ark offers refuge from even bitter cold snaps. Keep in mind too that most medium and large egg-laying breeds are cold-hardy, bred over generations for success in cold climates all prior to the advent of electric heat! For lots more information on preparing your chicken coop and flock for the winter, see the winter-tagged posts at our blog, Coop Thoughts. How secure is this coop against predators? Or simply take in their food. Raccoons are another story. They will dig, pry, and even undo a latch to get into your coop. They want your chickens. There is also a sliding door between the henhouse and run that you can close at night. If you take these steps, the henhouse can be fully locked down quite easily, even if you choose to leave the bottom of the run open. In many cities and suburbs that require a permit to keep chickens, a predator-proof design is a must. Does the plan include instructions for a nesting box? The plan does include specs for one nesting box, perfect for 3 or 4 hens. If you wanted another for any reason, you could probably add one. How do you clean out the henhouse, and how often? Cleaning the henhouse is done simply from the double doors on the coop. Just brush the litter down into the yard and add fresh bedding. How often depends on the season and how often your chickens roost in the henhouse. You can paint the henhouse floor or top it with a layer of vinyl flooring to make cleanup easier.

Construction and description[ edit ] According to the Book of Exodus , God instructed Moses on Mount Sinai during his day stay upon the mountain within the thick cloud and darkness where God was [5] [6] and he was shown the pattern for the tabernacle and furnishings of the Ark to be made of shittim wood to house the Tablets of Stone. Moses instructed Bezalel and Oholiab to construct the Ark. Then it is to be gilded entirely with gold , and a crown or molding of gold is to be put around it. Four rings of gold are to be attached to its four corners, two on each side—”and through these rings staves of shittim-wood overlaid with gold for carrying the Ark are to be inserted; and these are not to be removed. Missing from the account are instructions concerning the thickness of the mercy seat and details about the cherubim other than that the cover be beaten out the ends of the Ark and that they form the space where God will appear. The Ark is finally to be placed under the veil of the covering. Whenever the Israelites camped, the Ark was placed in a separate room in a sacred tent , called the Tabernacle. When the Israelites, led by Joshua toward the Promised Land, arrived at the banks of the Jordan river , the Ark was carried in the lead preceding the people and was the signal for their advance. Philistine captivity of the Ark A few years later the elders of Israel decided to take the Ark out onto the battlefield to assist them against the Philistines , after being defeated at the battle of Eben-Ezer. The Ark was captured by the Philistines and Hophni and Phinehas were killed. The news of its capture was at once taken to Shiloh by a messenger "with his clothes rent, and with earth upon his head. The next morning Dagon was found prostrate, bowed down, before it; and on being restored to his place, he was on the following morning again found prostrate and broken. The people of Ashdod were smitten with tumors; a plague of mice was sent over the land. The Ark was set up in the field of Joshua the Beth-shemite , and the Beth-shemites offered sacrifices and burnt offerings. Kirjath-jearim remained the abode of the Ark for twenty years. Under Saul, the Ark was with the army before he first met the Philistines, but the king was too impatient to consult it before engaging in battle. In 1 Chronicles At the beginning of his reign over the United Monarchy , King David removed the Ark from Kirjath-jearim amid great rejoicing. On the way to Zion , Uzzah , one of the drivers of the cart that carried the Ark, put out his hand to steady the Ark, and was struck dead by God for touching it. The place was subsequently named " Perez-Uzzah ", literally "Outburst Against Uzzah", [34] as a result. David, in fear, carried the Ark aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite , instead of carrying it on to Zion, and there it stayed three months. Holy of Holies , was prepared to receive and house the Ark; [52] and when the Temple was dedicated, the Ark—”containing the original tablets of the Ten Commandments —”was placed therein. There is no record of what became of the Ark in the Books of Kings and Chronicles. An ancient Greek version of the biblical third Book of Ezra, 1 Esdras , suggests that Babylonians took away the vessels of the ark of God, but does not mention taking away the Ark: Some rabbis hold that it must have been carried off to Babylon, while others hold that it must have been hidden lest it be carried off into Babylon and never brought back. Rabbi Eliezer and Rabbi Shimon, in the same rabbinic work, state that the Ark was, in fact, taken into Babylon. Rabbi Yehudah, dissenting, says that the Ark was stored away in its own place, meaning, somewhere on the Temple Mount. In the Book of Jeremiah , it is referenced by Jeremiah , who, speaking in the days of Josiah , [62] prophesied a future time, possibly the end of days , when the Ark will no longer be talked about or be made again: When he reached the mountain, Jeremiah found a cave-dwelling; he carried the tent, the ark, and the incense-altar into it, then blocked up the entrance. Some of his companions came to mark out the way, but were unable to find it. When Jeremiah learnt of this he reprimanded them. The Lord will bring these things to light again, and the glory of the Lord will appear with the cloud, as it was seen both in the time of Moses and when Solomon prayed that the shrine might be worthily consecrated. New Testament[ edit ] Carrying the Ark of the Covenant: This is the interpretation given in the third century by Gregory Thaumaturgus , and in the fourth century by Saint Ambrose , Saint Ephraem of Syria and Saint Augustine. For who is your equal in greatness, O dwelling place of God the Word? To whom among all creatures shall I compare you, O Virgin? You are greater than them all O Ark of the Covenant, clothed with purity instead of gold! You are the Ark in which is found the golden vessel containing the true manna, that is, the flesh in which Divinity resides" Homily of the Papyrus of Turin. Indeed in that is a sign for you, if you are believers. According to Uri Rubin the Ark of the Covenant has a religious basis in Islam, and Islam gives it special significance. Mount Nebo[ edit ] 2 Maccabees 2: Mount Nebo is approximately 47 km 29 miles slightly south of due east from Jerusalem, near the east bank of the Jordan River. Replicas of the Axum tabot are kept in every Ethiopian Orthodox Tewahedo church, each with its own dedication to a particular saint; the most popular of these include Mary, George and Michael. It narrates how the real Ark of the Covenant was brought to Ethiopia by Menelik I with divine assistance, while a forgery was left in the Temple in Jerusalem. Although the Kebra Nagast is the best-known account of this belief, it predates the document. Abu al-Makarim , writing in the last quarter of the twelfth century, makes one early reference to this belief that they possessed the Ark. He says that the object described by the Lemba has attributes similar to the Ark. It was of similar size, was carried on poles by priests, was not allowed to touch the ground, was revered as a voice of their God, and was used as a weapon of great power, sweeping enemies aside. One Lemba clan, the Buba, which was supposed to have brought the Ark to Africa, have a genetic signature called the Cohen Modal Haplotype. This suggests a male Semitic link to the Levant. Lemba tradition maintains that the Ark spent some time in Sena in Yemen. Later, it was taken across the sea to East Africa and may have been taken inland at the time of the Great Zimbabwe civilization. According to their oral traditions, some time after the arrival of the Lemba with the Ark, it self-destructed. Using a core from the original, the Lemba priests constructed a new one. This replica was discovered in a cave by a Swedish German missionary named Harald von Sicard in the s and eventually found its way to the Museum of Human Science in Harare. John Lateran , surviving the pillages of Rome by Genseric and Alaric I but lost when the basilica burned. There was a bloodstain on it. On inquiry he was told that it was a stain from the blood which the high priest sprinkled thereon on the Day of Atonement. Phillips claims it remained there until the s, when Ralph de Sudeley , the leader of the Templars found the Maccabean treasure at Jebel al-Madhbah , and returned home to his estate at Herdewyke in Warwickshire, England taking the treasure with him.
