One was Nancy Reagan, wife of the 40th U. President Ronald Reagan fell at his Los Angeles home January 12, and was taken to a hospital, where he will have surgery for a hip fracture, his spokeswoman said. Nancy Reagan was also known to give her husband advice on his public image and which people to choose for top staff positions. Currently they receive no salary. Eksterowicz said the case in favor of pay would be stronger if Bill Clinton was given specific tasks from the president. He also noted that Hillary and Bill Clinton both have strong, activist personalities. He said there is a very real possibility that Bill Clinton could overshadow his wife in certain actions. AP Professor Litchman agrees. She has got a tremendous heart. She would not be the only first lady born outside of the United States. It happened once before in That was the year the sixth U.
