We are at cheerleading, summer time, enjoying ourselves. They live in Chillicothe and Savannah said have had great support from their church, community and friends. She would wake up in the morning with hair all over the pillow. Hair does not make you. Hair does not make you a good person. It does not determine whether or not you are capable of anything. So she said, what can we do? So Liauna asked Brooklynn to color her hair like a rainbow. When Brooklynn showed up at the hospital with rainbow-colored hair it was a great surprise for the little girl. But she was all giggling, laughing it was nice, it was great. Seeing her smile and laugh is like the best thing you know. Brooklynn said she has worked at the restaurant about a year with no issues. So she was hurt when they turned her away. Brooklynn said she will find another job. I really want people aware of what is going on for Liauna. If that gets attention for her I would be grateful for that. We also made several phone calls to Human Resources and corporate media relations. At the end of Thursday, Brooklynn said managers told her she could come back to work with her rainbow hair, and they would pay her for the days she lost. In a written statement from Bob Evans Corporate offices. Not only do we look forward to welcoming her back to work but also partnering with her on fundraising efforts for this important cause. Liauna is hoping to go home for the weekend, but she is scheduled for another chemo session on Monday.
