India mourns your loss â€” Mamata Banerjee (@MamataOfficial) His passing is a great loss to the nation. May his soul rest in peace. â€” Akhilesh Yadav (@yadavakhilesh) August 7, Kalaignar is no more. He was instrumental to create Prime Ministers in India. I condole his death. Kalaignar Karunanidhi â€” V. Today India lost one of its greatest sons. And Tamil Nadu lost its father figure. Loved by the Tamilian people, Kalaignar strode the stage of Tamil politics, like a colossus, for over 6 decades. In his passing, India has lost a great son. My condolences to his family as also to the millions of Indians who grieve for their beloved leader tonight. He was a true representative of our democracy and worked tirelessly for the people of Tamil Nadu. His contributions to the nation shall never be forgotten. Anguished to learn about the demise of veteran politician, M Karunanidhi ji. He had an impressive life journey, starting as a screen writer in Tamil film industry to being five term Chief Minister of Tamil Nadu. No one can forget his struggle during Emergency, imposed in Om Shanti Shanti Shanti. Deeply saddened at the passing away of Kalaignar M Karunanidhi. He will be missed deeply. Deeply saddened by the demise of a patriarch of Dravidian Karunanidhi ji. His death has left a void gap in Indian politics. My deepest condolences to people of Tamil Nadu and family of Karunanidhi ji. May his soul rest in peace. My condolences to his family and all followers on this immense loss. It is a big loss for the whole country. Kalaignar Karunanidhi was a seasoned leader who dedicated himself in service to the poor and needy. He was a powerful voice of the marginalised section of our society. India mourns his demise. His contribution to the Tamil society and the Tamil Nadu state will always be remembered. My heartfelt tributes to Kalaignar Karunanidhi and condolences to the bereaved family. Only once in a while you see a visionary leader like kalaignar89 , who championed the cause of social activism and federalism. My respect to a giant soul who departed for heavenly abode. My condolences are with family and fans of Shri Karunanidhi. Tamil politics can never be the same again. Our heartfelt condolences to the family and supporters of Kalaignar Karunanidhi. His passing is a great loss to the nation. A national phenomenon for his steadfast commitment to rights and self-respect of Indian people. His death has left a huge void in Tamil and Indian polity. My respects to KalaignarKarunanidhi pic. Karunanidhi and share the grief with the family members and people of Tamil Nadu. May his soul rest in peace! M Karunanidhi Garu will be dearly missed!

Lebanon mourns the loss of a man of great integrity. Mr Boutros was a great sceptic, the natural reflex of a man manoeuvring in an unstable country and region. He was also a political animal.

He said Rantao was well versed in BNF politics. Moupo said they used to send Rantao on party assignments around the country and he would do his job diligently. He said Rantao also made invaluable contributions in parliament. He said Rantao made a significant contribution to opposition politics. I had the opportunity to work with him in parliament and at the party level, he was a tireless activist," said Kgospula. Gaborone deputy Mayor, Ezekiel Dube who worked with Rantao for a long time, said they were not only comrades but also close friends. He said Rantao was born a politician. Dube said Rantao liked to mix with people from the grassroots level. He added that when Rantao was undertaking a project, he would make certain that it succeeded. He commended Rantao for always consulting with other councillors. This is something I will never forget," said Dube. He said that the last time he saw Rantao was a week ago due to other commitments. Paul loved the BNF so much," said Dube. Despite being in the opposition, he was an MP that I looked up to for parliamentary practice and experience. His incisive and spot on contributions were always laced with good humour. In parliament Rantao was friendly with everybody. He was a very effective representative of the people. He was a national leader who knew how to represent people," said Kwelagobe who first met Rantao when they were still secondary school students. He recalled that when they were students, they used to compete in athletic events. The former editor of the Botswana Guardian, Kgosi Moesi who worked with Rantao at the then Department of Information and Broadcasting, said his death was shocking. Moesi said even though he was a politician, Rantao was still pursuing his first love - journalism. He said Rantao was jovial and highly intelligent. When he worked for the government media, Rantao used to write a humorous column called "Di Bonwa ke Gakeope". Rantao, who was a senior government journalist, became a BNF activist in the 80s following his retirement from the civil service. At the time of his retirement, he was deployed to the Ministry of Education. Even as a politician, Rantao was vocal on labour issues and represented workers. In , he was elected councillor and ultimately Gaborone Mayor. In , he contested the newly delimited Gaborone West constituency and became the first MP of the area. He would never miss an opportunity to send a statement to the media on any current topic. Rantao was also in his element while addressing freedom rallies and this is where he derived the name "Ostrich". He would always regale his audience with his sense of humour. One time in , he was addressing a political rally in Francistown when somebody interjected that he was lying. His curt response was that "yes of course are you not aware that I am the Minister for Propaganda. Rantao who is survived by his wife and three daughters was born in Family members were still working on funeral arrangements at the time of going to press.
