The St. Lawrence River is an integral part of Canadian life, and on Quebec's St. Lawrence Route, travellers can see the area in all its variations. Also called Route du fleuve, the St. Lawrence Route is a fifty-kilometre stretch of Highway in the Charlevoix region, running between Baie-St-Paul and La Malbaie.

Lawrence County Whether you are a leisure rider looking for a nice country road to explore, a hard-core biker looking for a challenging day-long trip, or someone hoping to get into the woods and play in the dirt -- St. Lawrence County has it all. Bicyclists may cross at the St. There is no toll if you are riding a bicycle when you cross. Check out the following rides, rated for difficulty: Lawrence Seaway Ride 52 miles, rated 1. Only two of the St. You will be able to view the lock from the Observation Deck, and then ride underneath it on your way to the St. Lawrence, a power pool almost as large as the District of Columbia. The return route is on the same road just with a different view, and extra chances to view oceangoing ships. Pleasant Valley Ride 16 miles, rated 2. Lightly rolling terrain and sparsely traveled back roads have made this ride popular with the locals and visitors alike. In Morley if you turn left at the intersection of County Route 27 and County Route 14, a short detour will take you to an interesting old Episcopal church and graveyard. Some stretches of this route can be windy but it is still a good route for a laid back rider. Indian Creek Tour 24 miles, rated 2. This scenic tour takes the rider along the flat to gently rolling country roads between, Canton, Morley and Rensselaer Falls and completely around the Indian Creek Nature Center. Points of interest include one of the few grist mill ruins still standing in the County. You will also see Trinity Chapel, constructed in in Morley. There are several Amish farms along this route, and deer and waterfowl abound in the woods and marshes. Road surfaces are generally good to excellent with little traffic. Frederic Remington Ride 57 miles, rated 2. Food and water are not allowed in the museum, and please no cleated bike shoes. The return trip to Canton takes you along the St. This short tour takes the rider into a series of scenic hills south and west of Canton. At the edge of village you will cross over the Little River on a wooden bridge. After that point there are no more services on this tour until you return to Canton via the Old Dekalb Road, so take plenty of water. This ride tours a series of historic churches and churchyards between Canton and Waddington on the St. In Morley, view both the Trinity Chapel, constructed in and one of the few grist mills remains left in the County. Road surface conditions along this flat to rolling tour are generally good to excellent. This scenic ride takes the rider along the flat to gently rolling county and town roads between Canton and Pyrites, bypassing the hamlet of Pyrites. Road surface conditions along this tour are generally good to excellent with little traffic. Crary Mills Loop 20 miles, rated 3. There are some rolling hills on part of this route with plenty of flat portions in between. Roads are good to excellent. Foothills Loop 27 miles, rated 3. Rolling all the way, this takes you along the edge of the foothills of the Adirondacks. Old Mill Town Loop 32 Miles, rated 3. The real hills start around the 9 mile point and continue off and on until the return to Canton. Take plenty of water as there are no services on this route. Though you can hardly tell it today, the little hamlet of Pyrites was a bustling paper mill town until the mill closed in the late s. Hidden behind vegetation, the mill ruins are still visible between mile Raquette River Loop 34 miles, rated 3. This loop takes the rider over the hills from the Grasse River valley to the Raquette River valley at Hannawa Falls and back by way of the crossroads community of Pierrepont. It is one of the more challenging middle distance rides. None of the hills is really formidable but several are more than gentle rises. After you cross the river in the hamlet of Hannawa Falls there are a couple of stores as you leave the village you will come to the entrance of Postwood Park, a good place for a picnic lunch or a swim. About 10 miles beyond is the stopover at Lampson Falls, with a short walk into the falls. This series of falls features a basic camping and picnic area, and is unusual in that you can stand or sit at the very edge of the falls. This ride, though outside of the Adirondack Park itself, give you the full North Country and Adirondack treatment, with winding and twisting hilly back roads weaving through farmland and wooded areas. Tooley Pond Loop 44 miles, rated 3, and 84 miles rated 4. This loop is actually two separate rides. Leaving from Canton is the total 86 miles, while a report start from Degrasse results in a mile total. In either case, this is one of the beautiful wilderness trips for which the Adirondack Park is known. Part of both rides follows the Oswegatchie River. Along the Tooley Pond Road, you will either see deer or be seen by them – count on it! There may be some sections of the road that are dirt, and some steep downhill sections with rough pavement, check your brakes before the ride. South Colton Loop 41 miles, rated 4. This ride ascends into the Adirondack foothills, making a loop through South Colton and Colton, which lie just outside the Adirondack State Park. The terrain is mostly hilly with a few challenging longer climbs. A stopping point at mile Lawrence River Valley atop the hills in Pierrepont. From there the descent into Canton on State Highway 68 is enjoyable and fast, but requires caution because of hills, curves and narrow shoulders. As you enter South Colton, you will pass Sunday Rock, the legend is in the lumbering days this was the divide between civilization and the lawless. This is a truly challenging ride, climbing a total of over 2, feet with some steep grades. It has many beautiful vistas typical of the Adirondack Park and a spectacular view from White Hill of the St. Lawrence River Valley and over into Canada on a very clear day. There are no services between South Colton and Parishville, so a good supply of water is necessary. Adirondack Century miles, rated 4. A scenic trip from rolling farmland to hilly sections of the Adirondack Park. Watch for deer, hawks, and herons. There are few places for water or provisions along the route, so stock up when you can. Adirondack Overnight approximately miles in 2 days, rated 4. This is essentially the Adirondack Century broken up into two days.
