SEMI-COMPATIBILISM AND THE TRANSFER OF NON-RESPONSIBILITY 63 A Problem for Semi-Compatibilism. Peter van Inwagen has argued that the same type of transfer principle which underlies the Conse-

Hawaii title transfers are handled at the county level. Hawaii, Honolulu, and Maui counties require that you complete a Notice of Transfer form, which releases you from liability for the vehicle. There is no form required for Kauai County. Call for more information. If you need a duplicate, visit our Replacing a Lost Title page. On the back of the HI car title, sign and date the seller lines or previous owner section. If there are joint owners, both of you must sign the title over. Fill in the odometer reading. Give the new owner the valid and current certificate of registration and the state of Hawaii safety inspection certificate. If required by your county, submit a Notice of Transfer form. If you reside in Kauai County, call for more information.

Transferring a Car to a Family Member in Hawaii You can transfer a car title to family members without actually selling it to them. Sign the back of the title over to the new owner and write in the mileage. Have the new owner sign and date the title. The new owner brings these documents to their county office and pays the transfer fee: Call for fees. When transferring a title to a family member, they are not required to pay a use tax. For more information call the Hawaii District Tax Office at [phone number]. The new owner will need to register the vehicle before driving. You will need your Hawaii car title. See our section on Replacing a Lost Title if you need a duplicate. Transfer the title to the organization or representative of the nonprofit: Sign and date the title as the seller. The organization representative fills out the buyer section. Hand over a valid and current registration card and safety inspection certificate.

Buying a Vehicle in Hawaii New Vehicles Completing a car title transfer when you buy a new car is simple because the dealer does it for you. If you take out a car loan, the title will be issued to the lienholder until you pay it off. Used Vehicles Buying a car from an individual is more involved than buying from a dealership. To buy a vehicle from an individual: Have the seller sign, date, and write the mileage on the back of the Hawaii car title. Sign and date the title yourself. Get a bill of sale as a receipt. Take the title, the valid and current certificate of registration, and the state of Hawaii safety inspection certificate to your county registration office. Register your car at the same time. Hawaii does not currently require smog checks. However, your safety certificate must be renewed annually. Visit an authorized service station or vehicle repair shop and present the safety check inspector with: Proof of registration Proof of car insurance

Out-of-State Vehicles If you purchase a vehicle from outside of Hawaii, you will need to complete and sign the Application for Registration form for your county: Call for more information

Kauai County: Call for more information Bring the following to your county office: Out-of-state title signed over to you. Out-of-state certificate of registration. Shipping receipt showing when your car arrived in Hawaii. Current Hawaii safety inspection certificate. When you pay off your vehicle or sell it to an individual, the loan needs to be paid and the lien removed from the vehicle. After you make the final payment: The lender will sign the title over and mail it to you. You may need to notify the lien holder in order to get the title sent to you. Bring your valid registration card and safety certificate. Pay the transfer fee: You will need to pay any outstanding registration renewal fees if the registration on the vehicle has expired or will expire 45 days.

Receiving a Vehicle as a Gift Receiving a vehicle as a gift is similar to buying a vehicle. To transfer a title when you get a vehicle as a gift: Have the previous owner sign, date, and put the odometer reading on the back of the title. Get the valid and current registration card and safety inspection certificate from the prior owner. Go to a registration office and pay the title transfer fee: If you receive a vehicle as a gift, you are eligible for a use tax exemption. For more information, call the Hawaii District Tax Office at [phone number]. After obtaining the title you will need to register the vehicle and affix the plates.

Inheriting a Vehicle in Hawaii If a joint-owner with whom you owned a vehicle has passed away, sign the vehicle over to yourself on the back of the title, and then proceed with the following: Take the title and death certificate to a registration office to complete the car title transfer. Your county office may require the following:

What is a Notice of Transfer and Release of Liability? The Notice of Transfer and Release of Liability (NRL) is used to notify the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) when you have sold or transferred your vehicle or vessel to another party. It is used only when ownership of the vehicle or vessel has.

4: Declaration of Non-responsibility

Welcome to the DMV Notice of Transfer and Release of Liability (NRL) System. Reporting the sale or transfer of a vehicle or vessel to the DMV does not constitute a transfer of ownership. The record is not permanently transferred out of your name until the DMV receives a completed application for.
