

THE WAYNE COUNTY, WEST VIRGINIA WILSONS THEIR RELATED FAMILIES pdf

1: Wayne County, West Virginia - Wikipedia

The Wayne County, West Virginia Wilsons & their related families: a genealogical history of progenitors James and Sarah (Mounts) Wilson and their descendants.

According to his Compiled Service Records, he was "captured by Rebels" on December 5, , and was released four months later to a Union hospital in Maryland. At the time of his capture, he was recovering from a gunshot wound to the chest. During the early months of the Civil War he joined a company of the Pike County Home Guards, under the command of Uriah Runyon, and it is thought he sustained the wound while serving in this unit. Although Cline survived his wounds, Anse Hatfield vowed to retaliate against the responsible parties. Some time in , a group of Confederate Home Guards ambushed and killed William Francis as he was leaving his house, and Anse Hatfield took credit for the deed. On muster rolls beginning on May 6, , Asa Harmon McCoy is reported in a Lexington hospital, suffering from a leg fracture. Beginning in December , the 45th Kentucky Infantry began mustering its regiments out of service. He was killed near his home on January 7, , just thirteen days after leaving the Union Army. There are no existing records pertaining to his death and no warrants were issued in connection with the murder. The matter was taken to the local Justice of the Peace , Anderson "Preacher Anse" Hatfield, [10] who ruled for the Hatfields by the testimony of Bill Staton, a relative of both families. In June , Staton was killed by two McCoy brothers, Sam and Paris, who were later acquitted on the grounds of self-defense. Roseanna eventually returned to the McCoy's, but when the couple tried to resume their relationship, Johnse Hatfield was arrested by the McCoy's on outstanding Kentucky bootlegging warrants. He was freed from McCoy custody only when Roseanna made a desperate midnight ride to alert Devil Anse, who organized a rescue party. The Hatfield party surrounded the McCoy's and took Johnse back to West Virginia before he could be transported the next day to the county seat in Pikeville , Kentucky. Despite what was seen as her betrayal of her own family on his behalf, Johnse Hatfield thereafter abandoned the pregnant Roseanna for her cousin, Nancy McCoy, whom he wed in Tolbert, Pharmed, and Bud. The McCoy brothers were initially arrested by Hatfield constables and were taken to Pikeville for trial. Secretly, Devil Anse Hatfield organized a large group of followers and intercepted the constables and their McCoy prisoners before they reached Pikeville. Their bodies were described as "bullet-riddled". All of the Hatfields eluded arrest; this angered the McCoy family, who took their cause up with Perry Cline. Cline was married to Martha McCoy. A few years prior, Cline lost a lawsuit against Devil Anse over the deed to thousands of acres of land, subsequently increasing the hatred between the two families. In , Jeff McCoy killed a mail carrier named Fred Wolford, and the man who went to pursue him for his crime was acting constable Cap Hatfield. Cap and a friend named Tom Wallace shot him while on the run on the banks of Tug River. Cap Hatfield and Jim Vance led several members of the Hatfield clan to surround the McCoy cabin and opened fire on the sleeping family. He escaped by making a break for it, but two of his children were shot and his wife was beaten and almost killed. With his house burning, Randolph and his remaining family members were able to escape to the woods; his children, unprepared for the elements, suffered frostbite. Battle of the Grapevine Creek[edit] Main article: Battle of the Grapevine Creek Between and , the feud claimed more than a dozen members of the two families. In response, Kentucky Governor S. Philipps then made other successive raids on Hatfield homes and supporters and captured three before cornering the rest in Grapevine Creek on 19 January. A battle ensued between the two parties, and the Hatfields were eventually apprehended. Eventually, the men were tried in Kentucky and all were found guilty. Seven received life imprisonment , while the eighth, Ellison "Cottontop" Mounts, was executed by hanging. He petitioned his brothers to assist in his emancipation from jail but none came for fear of being captured and brought to trial. He was buried in the prison cemetery, which has since been paved over. William Anderson "Devil Anse" Hatfield , the younger and more militant brother of Valentine Hatfield, led the clan in most of their combative endeavors. Mahon, son-in-law of Valentine and brother of Pliant, one of the eight Hatfields convicted, served 14 years in prison before returning home to live with his son, Melvin. Pliant Mahon, son-in-law of Valentine, served 14 years in prison before returning home to rejoin his ex-wife, who had remarried but left her second husband to live with Pliant again. Fighting between the families eased following the hanging of Mounts. Trials continued for years until the trial of Johnse Hatfield, the last of the feud trials. Many improvements to various feud sites were completed. A committee of local historians spent months researching reams of information to find out about the factual history of the events surrounding the feud. The CD is a self-guided driving tour of the restored feud sites and includes maps and pictures as well as the audio CD. More than 5, people attended the reunion, which attained national attention. The McCoys took on a private property owner, John Vance, who had restricted access to the cemetery. Reo Hatfield said that he wanted to show that if the two families could reach an accord, others could also. He had said that he wanted to send a broader message to the world that when national security is at risk, Americans put their differences aside and stand united: There is also a tug-of-war across the Tug Fork tributary near which the feuding families lived, a live re-enactment of scenes from their most famous fight, a motorcycle ride, live entertainment, Hatfieldâ€™McCoy landmark tours, a cornbread contest, pancake breakfast, arts, crafts, and dancing. Launched in , the festival typically attracts thousands with more than runners taking part in the races. Please help improve this article by adding citations to reliable sources. Unsourced material may be challenged and removed. It features Egghead as a peace activist - going by the name Elmer Fudd before he was a hunter - trying to put an end to the two feuding hillbilly clans. In , Warner Bros. The Martin brothers chase Bugs for the rest of the short and are outwitted by him at every turn. The movie Pumpkinhead: Blood Feud portrays the feud between the Hatfields and McCoys, but the circumstances of the feud are different. They are loosely inspired by the real-life Hatfield-McCoy. Ann Rinaldi authored a historical novel titled The Coffin Quilt , based on a fictionalized account of the feud. Television[edit] The Flintstones featured a feud between the Hatrocks and the Flintstones in the episode "The Flintstone Hillbillies" aired January 16, , which was loosely based upon the Hatfieldâ€™McCoy feud. The Andy Griffith Show also alluded to the rivalry in an episode called "A Feud is a Feud" aired December 5, , in which the feud is between the Wakefields and Carters. The Merrie Melodies cartoon "Feud with a Dude" has the character Merlin the Magic Mouse trying to make peace with the two families, only to end up as the new target. A television movie titled The Hatfields and the McCoys told a fictionalized version of the story. The two feuding Virginia families in the made-for-TV film Pumpkinhead: Blood Feud are called Hatfield and McCoy. The eleventh episode of Bones season 7, entitled The Family in the Feud , is about a long-running family feud that main character Seeley Booth likens to the Hatfieldâ€™McCoy feud. From May 28â€™30, , U. White Lightning premiered on the History channel. The school principal frowns upon this idea, however, Gloria and a competitive mother played by Jane Krakowski decide to settle their score with such a game. Hurriedly Cam proclaims Hatfields for one side and McCoys for the other. The fifth season of My Little Pony: Friendship Is Magic featured an episode titled "The Hooffields and McColts", in which two clans have a longstanding feud over whether to use land for farming or construction. In the action RPG Borderlands 2 , the game features two rivaling families clans , the Hodunks and Zafords, and many fans believe this is a reference to the Hatfieldâ€™McCoy feud. This idea is supported by the add-on Mad Moxxi and the Wedding Day Massacre , in which a member of each clan is to be married, a likely reference to the marriage of Nancy McCoy and Johnson Hatfield. While comparing to the events going on in his life by gang violence. Video Games[edit] In the multiplayer FPS ""Team Fortress 2" the core component of the story is that two rival brothers, Redmond Mann and Blutarch Mann, have been fighting for the properties granted to them by their father Zepheniah Mann for years, hiring different mercenaries to carry out the operations. This is similar to a family feud with the exception that it takes place in a single family. Both families task the player character in carrying out attacks on one another. Hatfield genealogy[edit] Devil Anse Hatfield family tree[edit] Names in red indicate those who were killed as a direct result of the feud. Numbers in green square brackets [] are cross references to the timeline in the "Deaths" section above Devil Anse Hatfield family tree with Mary.

THE WAYNE COUNTY, WEST VIRGINIA WILSONS THEIR RELATED FAMILIES pdf

THE WAYNE COUNTY, WEST VIRGINIA WILSONS THEIR RELATED FAMILIES pdf

2: Robertson Cemetery (Wayne County, West Virginia)

The Wayne County, West Virginia Wilsons & their related families 1 edition By James Everett Wilson The Wayne County, West Virginia Wilsons & their related families.

They are listed in alphabetical order. Select a judge from the drop-down below to review their profile. He graduated from George Washington High School in Clarke School of Law, where he was an associate editor of the Law Review. He then opened his own practice in He is the chief judge. He is the past president and president-elect of the Family Court Judges Association. He is married to Allison Ballard and they have three children. He was elected to the seat in Judge Bisaha and his wife, Debra, have been married since and have three sons. She returned to the upper Ohio Valley upon graduation, accepting a clerkship with the Honorable John H. She entered private practice in in the courts of the Northern Panhandle, with the firm of William E. Prior to her election, Governors Gaston Caperton and Bob Wise had appointed her to serve as a family law master in and family court judge in , respectively. During the and West Virginia legislative sessions, she was the primary representative of the Family Court Association, traveling across the state to advocate for the new court system and interacting with legislative leadership to assist them in their efforts to establish the Court. Judge Chernenko has been on the vanguard of family court judicial administration, with the goal of improving the lives of children and families. She implemented a family court parenting mediation program two years before it was mandated statewide by the West Virginia Legislature. She also adopted a parent education program in her circuit prior to the Legislature implementing such a program statewide. She has been selected by the Supreme Court to train new Family Court Judges in domestic violence law, shared parenting law, and other areas of family law. In Judge Chernenko was named outstanding alumna for her service to Bethany, and in she and her husband were jointly awarded alumni of the year honors. She was elected in and re-elected in She was also a public defender in Logan County and an assistant Logan County prosecuting attorney before her judicial appointment. Codispoti, and they have two children and two grandchildren. He also was a member of the Harrison County Board of Education from to and served as president of the board for four of those years. He and his wife, Cindy live in Bridgeport. They have two adult daughters and two grandchildren. He subsequently opened his own practice and worked as a Jackson County assistant prosecuting attorney. When his predecessor resigned, then-Governor Earl Ray Tomblin appointed him on August 15, , to serve the remainder of her term before starting his own. Judge Cromley and his wife, Jennifer, have two daughters and one son and live in Point Pleasant. Deskins was born in South Williamson, Kentucky. She took office on October 27, Before she became a judge, she also had been a family court guardian ad litem for Lincoln, Logan, and Mingo Counties since and an approved family court mediator for the West Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals since She previously was the city attorney for the town of West Logan in and Judge Deskins was an adjunct criminal justice professor at Southern Community and Technical College in Logan from Judge Deskins and her husband, Chad, have four children. From June until he took the bench he was the assistant deputy staff judge advocate for the West Virginia Air National Guard. He has been a member of the Guard since May He also worked there from to and to , at all times handling family law, mediation, family court guardian ad litem, federal criminal defense and personal injury cases. He served as a mental hygiene commissioner from to He lives in Summersville. He previously worked as a sole practitioner from until his election, specializing in divorce and family law. He also served as the Braxton County Prosecuting Attorney from He has lived in Charleston since His hobbies include skiing, scuba diving, boating, walking his dog, and the New England Patriots. He is a decorated U. He was an assistant Fayette County prosecutor focusing on juvenile and criminal cases from to He was a police officer and firearms instructor for the Beckley Police Department from to , a deputy sheriff in Raleigh County from to , and a member of the Bishopville, South Carolina, City Police Department from to Judge England and his wife, Lisa, have four children. Then-Governor Gaston Caperton appointed her to be a Family Law Master in and she was re-appointed by

THE WAYNE COUNTY, WEST VIRGINIA WILSONS THEIR RELATED FAMILIES pdf

circuit judges in She was elected in and re-elected in to a circuit that also included Summers County. Before her judicial appointments, she was a senior law clerk to U. District Judge Elizabeth V. Hallanan to During her tenure on the bench, she has attended many national conferences dealing with domestic violence, technology and the law, and child support from Providence, Rhode Island, to Monterey, California. She has presented at numerous conferences on the subject of domestic violence, law, and parenting. Judge Goldston has three children. He was elected Family Court Judge in He is the juvenile drug court judge for both Berkeley and Jefferson Counties. Before becoming a judge, he practiced law at Greenberg and Scales in Martinsburg for nineteen years. Judge Greenberg is on the Board of Directors of the Boys and Girls Club of the Eastern Panhandle and coached youth baseball and basketball for many years. He has been a guest speaker at numerous judicial and legal continuing education seminars on the subject of family law updates. He and his wife, Joni, have two children. She attended Concord College from to She was elected in She oversees the Juvenile Drug Court in her circuit. She became a member of the National Association of Counsel for Children in and began service on the West Virginia State Bar Commission on Children at its inception in , eventually serving as chairwoman for ten years. In she established Child Law Services Inc. She has one daughter and one grandchild. Before he was elected, he was concurrently a math teacher at Boone County Career and Technical Center two years , a Boone County fiduciary commissioner two years and an attorney with Cook and Cooke Attorneys in Madison 26 years. She previously was the Randolph County Assistant Prosecutor from until her election. Before that she worked at the Curnutte Law Office in Elkins from to He served as a Family Law Master from to He was elected in and re-elected in Judge Hicks has been a member of the Judicial Investigation Commission since He is a deacon at the First Baptist Church in Sistersville and is a former moderator and vice moderator of the Panhandle Baptist Association. He and his wife, Jennifer, have been married since , and they have three adult daughters. She has a law degree from West Virginia University College of Law, where she was Order of the Barristers and won first place in a moot court competition in Philadelphia. She was a nursing home ombudsman at the West Virginia Commission on Aging in Charleston to , an assistant professor in social work at Salem College to , and a claim representative at State Farm in Fairmont to From until she took the bench she was an assistant prosecuting attorney in Cabell County. She and her son live in Huntington. She has a history degree from Shepherd College now University and a law degree from George Washington University. Judge Jackson was appointed by then-Gov. Bob Wise in Before that she was an attorney at Crawford and Jackson in Charles Town for ten years. She is married to Daniel Jackson, has one daughter and two grandchildren. Cooley Law School in Michigan. She took office in September after then-Governor Earl Ray Tomblin appointed her to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of her predecessor. She is married to Jim Johnson, who is a West Virginia coal miner. They have one son and one grandchild. He previously was the Ritchie County Prosecutor from to and to He was an attorney in private practice from to and to He has coached youth basketball for many years and is active in his church. He and his wife, Patricia Jones, have been married for more than thirty-five years. They have three children and two grandchildren. She was appointed Family Court Judge in by then-Gov. Bob Wise and was elected in and re-elected in She presides over domestic relations hearings, including divorce, child custody, visitation, domestic violence and support, as well as modification and contempt matters. In addition to her family court duties, Judge Keller presides over and helped implement the adult drug court in Cabell County. As an attorney, she argued several cases in front of the West Virginia Supreme Court. Judge Keller is an adjunct instructor at West Virginia University where she has taught graduate classes in the Master of Legal Studies Program since

THE WAYNE COUNTY, WEST VIRGINIA WILSONS THEIR RELATED FAMILIES pdf

3: WILSON Genealogy | WikiTree FREE Family Tree

The Wayne County, West Virginia Wilsons & their related families by James Everett Wilson, , Gateway Press, Please direct all correspondence and book orders to J.E. Wilson edition, in English.

Jacob died in in Morris County, New Jersey. Joseph Willis of Morris Co. He married Lydia Black. He had twelve children. His seven sons were William Q. He married Margaret Isbell between and in Jackson County. She was the daughter of James Isbell and Elizabeth Birdwell. Their children were Susannah A. Family Tree DNA has determined that James Willis of Alabama is a direct patrilineal descendant of Niall of the Nine Hostages, who established a dynasty of chieftains that dominated Ireland for six centuries. She gave birth to their son Albert Edward Willis in Albert emigrated to Calgary, Canada. He later moved to Tennessee. His son James Willis Jr. Samuel had a son Albert Willis, who was born in in New Zealand. Albert married first Ellen Sargent Montague, who was born in , and married second Margaret Mary Thompson, who was born in Albert came to Ontario, Canada to live and raise his family. He died in Another son of John Willis b. They moved to Grundy County, Missouri in Their eldest son Daniel was born in North Carolina in Daughters Lucretia, Avis, and Lucina were born in Tennessee. Their son Daniel is reputed to have been in the "Old Army" U. Army prior to the Civil War and to have been stationed "out West. Lucretia, Lucina, Lucy C. He married Martha last name unknown and had two girls and a boy named Iverson Asbury Willis in Georgia before moving to Dale County, Alabama, where he was a farmer listed in the , , and census. Jesse Willis was a Quaker who sought to abolish slavery. They had three children: He owned a parcel of land named "Wantage", indicating that he may have originally been from the village of the same name in Berkshire County, England. Known children were John Willis Jr. He is the ancestor of two participants of our project. Andrew owned land in Dorchester County that he left to sons Richard and George. Participants in our project include descendants of three different sons of Jarvis: His parents may have been James Willis and Catherine Deluhery. He emigrated to Canada about About he emigrated to the U. His children, all born in Canada, were John born about , William born about , and Jane Anne born about He acquired land in King George County in His first wife was Sarah last name unknown , by whom he had sons John Jr. His second wife was Matilda last name unknown by whom he had a son named Charles. William inherited John Sr. William was born in John inherited the estate. John was born in and died in He married Elizabeth Plunkett in He lived in King George County and had 12 children. One of his sons was 4. Edmund Terrill Willis born in , and 5. Benjamin Garnet Willis born in He served in a Maryland militia unit in He served in the Delaware Militia in He died about in Williston, Carteret County. He married Mary last name possibly Martin. By , all of his patrilineal descendants shortened their last name to Willis. He immigrated to San Francisco in He married Margaret Williams, who was born in and died in Willis, possibly a son of Isaac Willis son of Robert B. Willis was born probably in Maryland. He had a son Henry Lincoln Willis, who is believed to have been born in Ohio in He died on March 14, , in Middleburg, Pennsylvania. His father was possibly John Willis. In his will he named six sons: Benjamin married Abigail Winans; when she died he married her cousin Anna Winans. He married Sally Nowlin on June 4, They moved to Missouri in Williston was born about in Massachusetts. He was a tailor. He married Elizabeth Farnham, who was born about in New Hampshire. Josiah lived in Rockingham, Windham County, Vermont. His children were Helen Marie, Lucy A. Loudon moved with his mother to Georgia. He died February 19, , in Greene County. Moore questionnaire of Wm. Willis in state archives, Century Review of Maury County, page His son was Anthony. He later moved to Estill County, Kentucky. His children were Edward D. Willis, Mariam Willis, and Lucinda Willis. He married Martha Seaver, who was born in and died in Vermont in Their children were Lucinda b. Shubeal Willis married Lydia Bagley, of Vermont, in Daughter Lucinda married John Russey in He died in leaving a deed of gift which names his children. A son Joel Willis was born in They had at least four children Joseph, Mary, Sarah, and William. His brother, Joseph, married Mary Varah sister of Sarah. At one time the Willis family in Wickersley appear to have been quarry owners providing grind stones to the steel industry in Sheffield. His children were 1 William, 2 Richard Jr. He had several sons. The second was John Augustine Willis born 12 Apr. Willis, who married Mahala Walters. They moved to Lincoln County, Tennessee. According to family tradition, he is descended from one of seven "brothers" who immigrated from England in and settled in New York, Massachusetts, North Carolina, and Virginia. His son Richard Jr. A son of Richard Willis Jr. William had a son William Jasper Willis Jr. He died in in Southampton, Hampshire, England. His first marriage was to a woman possibly named Agnes, with whom he had a son Robert Willis Jr. She was born about and was a daughter of John Price and Hannah Williamson. Robert died in Randolph County, Indiana, in

THE WAYNE COUNTY, WEST VIRGINIA WILSONS THEIR RELATED FAMILIES pdf

4: The Wayne County, West Virginia Wilsons & their related families | Open Library

*The Wayne County, West Virginia Wilsons & their related families: A genealogical history of progenitors James and Sarah (Mounts) Wilson and their descendants [James Everett Wilson] on www.enganchecubano.com FREE shipping on qualifying offers.*

5: Catalog Record: The Wayne County, West Virginia Wilsons & | Hathi Trust Digital Library

The Wayne County, West Virginia Wilsons & their related families: a genealogical history of progenitors James and Sarah (Mounts) Wilson and their descendants / by James Everett Wilson.

6: West Virginia Archives and History

Find helpful customer reviews and review ratings for The Wayne County, West Virginia Wilsons & their related families: A genealogical history of progenitors James and Sarah (Mounts) Wilson and their descendants at www.enganchecubano.com Read honest and unbiased product reviews from our users.

7: The Wayne County, West Virginia Wilsons & their related families (edition) | Open Library

My Mother also has the book by James Everett Wilson, "The Wayne County, West Virginia Wilsons and their related families: a genealogical history of progenitors James and Sarah (Mounts) Wilson and their descendants".

8: West Virginia Genealogy - WVGenWeb Project

Wayne County is the westernmost county in the U.S. state of West www.enganchecubano.com of the census, the population was 42, Its county seat is Wayne. The county was founded in and named for General "Mad" Anthony Wayne.

9: West Virginia Vital Research Records - Marriage Records Search

Search USA Tennessee Wayne Wayne County. Welcome to our Wayne County family history research page. Here you'll find record collections, history, and genealogy resources to help you trace your Wayne County ancestors.

THE WAYNE COUNTY, WEST VIRGINIA WILSONS THEIR RELATED FAMILIES pdf

Is the Iranian nuclear threat a barrier to peace? Humanist ethics or realist aesthetics? In Hell Before Daylight 5th grade geometry worksheets Building the Atlantic world The Fail-Proof Enterprise Chronik der unsterblichen 02 der vampyr Two Women Boxing Grass Starionery Portfolio Math Made Simple, Grade 4 This is our world (Silver Burdett social science) Nonprofit leadership team Creating a positive school ambience : respect, instruction, welcome Fiennders keepers Orchestrating delusions : ideology and consent in Alberta Jerrold L. Kachur Dinu Lipatti remembered Addition of vectors Devotions for People Who Love Kids The fourth quarter : dying with your living trust The Analysis of communication content Centers of gravity critical vulnerabilities Which Is from God? The Quran, or the Bible? The History of the Soviet Atomic Industry Toward the next economics, and other essays The Break-Up of Britain Advances in Combinatorial Methods in Probability Statistics (Statistics for Industry and Technology) Incredible Birds (Freestyle Express: Incredible Creatures) Ethnic voting in Romania Canada goes to war High Court Case Summaries on Criminal Law (Keyed to LaFave, 3rd Edition) The loss of truth The New York coastwise trade (1865-1915) Master Theory Advanced Harmony and Arranging (Book 6 #L185) A vergil workbook teachers manual The New Chinese Empire Ford 4r44e 4r55e transmission rebuild manual What makes North America special? Mao Tse-tung and I were beggars. Leaves from a life-book of today Emma, the extra ordinary princess Scotland Travel Pack