I Must Tell Jesus What A Friend Just As I Am Files will be available directly after payment is complete. It has been tremendously enjoyable for me. I can say without a doubt that GOD gave me these arrangements, because they are very beautiful. Some examples are piano with flute, or piano and guitar, or piano with violin. I truly believe GOD wanted it to be included in this volume. HE is so worthy to be praised! Get all five volumes 75 songs! See the individual listings above for all the song titles. We all need to be reminded that we should be very thankful for our freedoms. Many lives were sacrificed, and many lives were damaged beyond repair with permanent scars. I pray these arrangements will touch hearts, as they are sang and played. This volume came during the toughest time of my life. On June 2, , my Dad went to heaven. It was a joyful graduation for him, but I miss him terribly. He was a godly man with a soft and tender heart, yet a strong man, whose life touched so many people and is continuing to do so. Since he also had a love for music and was a song leader in church for many years, he would be pleased to know this volume is in honor of him. Enjoy playing and singing these songs. HE paid for us to be free from sin by His death on the cross. And remember 2 Chronicles 7: It has been even more than I expected. Once a student has a grasp of the basic fundamentals of music most can begin playing many of these songs in their beginning year. This brings me such great satisfaction and is very rewarding. Jason and Monica were married in , and they give GOD all the glory for any accomplishments in their lives. Contact Monica with questions about the books or to order hard copies. I practice it even more than my Lesson book! Some of them make me think of my childhood days, when we used to sing them. May I play another one? These services are funded by grants, donations and fundraising enterprises such as the one you are looking at now. We would like to thank Monica and Jason for making this possible. It is the mission of AAEC to serve adults in Avery County with developmental disabilities, and their families, by providing vocational, educational, residential, and social opportunities and support.

We had been a music duo in our ward for a couple of years, and she wanted some fresh music. I had written a few EFY-style songs in high school and on my mission, plus a couple of wedding songs for her, but I had never attempted a Primary song. Joseph Smith, the pioneers, the stripling warriors, Nephi, and missionaries. I decided to roll them all up into one great song. At the time, I had also been studying one of my all-time favorite talks: Oaks from the October general conference. The strange thing is that I never planned to do mash-ups necessarily. However, I discovered through all of this that the kids can actually pull it off. What I came to love about mash-ups is that the mixing of songs is both musically interesting and spiritually enlightening. I found that, in general, this song style not only powerfully reinforces the quintessence of the song, but it also shines fresh light on a classic song, allowing you to think about it in a different way that enlarges the soul. I do this for a couple of reasons. First, almost all of us know the first verse to most of these songs and can generally sing it without looking at the words. But the most important reason why I use the first verse is that I want people to be able to sing these songs without music. I want them to feel the beauty of the words and the musical intricacies of the mash-ups. Sometimes when singing mash-ups, you have to put the music down, close your eyes, trust in the basic beat and your knowledge of the song, and just sing it! Throughout this whole process, I have come to love writing Primary songs. They teach important gospel principles in simple terms and are the backbone to many testimonies. I often think about how I was touched by both the music and the words of many Primary songs growing up. Their messages provide solace to the soul. I hope and pray that you find joy in the music, and that we build up a new generation of children who "become" what they believe. Designed by Brandon Powers.
