

1: Thoroughly Modern Millie (musical) | Revolv

viii, pages ; 20 cm "First published in the UK by Robinson"--Title page verso Timor mortis / Annette Meyers -- Brave new murder / H.R.F. Keating -- So beautiful, so dead / Robert J. Randisi -- There would have been murder / Ian Morson -- Someone / Michael Collins -- Kiss the razor's edge / Mike Stotter -- Thoroughly modern millinery / Marilyn Todd -- The day of two cars / Gillian Linscott.

Binder Lynch, 61, of Murfreesboro, Tenn. III of Perkiomenville; 4 grandchildren. Begovich, Brett from Sarubin, Danielle A. Benitez, Neftaly and Funez, Xiomara V. Krueger, 42, of Lorain Ave. She was administrative assistant for Dr. Born in Bethlehem, she was a daughter of Ellsworth and G. Virginia Hulbert Krueger, with whom she resided. Derstine, age 73, of Franconia Township, died in her residence Saturday afternoon, April 7. She was the beloved wife of Garland A. Derstine, with whom she celebrated 56 years of marriage. Born in Sellersville, she was the daughter of the late Horace B. Marilyn enjoyed the shore, the mountains, Hickory Run, Spruce Lake and even Green Lane, where she spent time with her family and friends. She loved sewing, gardening and her Sunday dinners for family and friends. She was the wife of George W. They were married 24 years. She was a secretary in the community relations department of the Bethlehem Steel Corp. Born in Bethlehem, she was a daughter of Laroy L. Rood Ruth of Bethlehem. She was a graduate of Bethlehem Business College. Krueger, 42, who died Thursday in St. Schuster, 70, of Whitehall Township, formerly of Allentown, who passed away December 31, , was predeceased by a brother, James F. Schuster, husband of Marilyn. His predeceased brothers name was omitted from his obituary Thursday. Wetzell, 64, of W. She was of the Christian faith. Lukes Hospital, Bethlehem, PA. She was the wife of the late Lester A. She was the widow of the late Theodore A. Born in Kutztown, she was the daughter of the late Allen C. Diefenderfer and the late Mabel K. She was a homemaker. She was a member of St. Malinowski and wife Tracy of Alburdis; daughter, Gail D. Bernecker of Allentown; brother, Richard A. Diefenderfer of Macungie; half sister, Nina wife of Michael Scott of Allentown; five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. She was the wife of Sidney Friedman for the past 73 years. She was a daughter of the late Joseph and Molly Goldstein Sobel. Marilyn was a very active life member of Hadassah. Marilyn's story is an extraordinary one on several different levels. First, in an era when career women were a rarity, Marilyn worked her way up from a bookkeeper in the garment industry to eventually running the office for a retail hardware business. She was the wife of Raymond D. Dougherty and they were married 53 years last February. Lawrence the Martyr Catholic Church, Catasauqua, where she was a member of the Altar and Rosary Society and was involved in the making of pierogies for many years at the church.

2: 'It Came From Beyond' Extends at NYMF

Best Detective Short Stories of the Year Marilyn Todd - Thoroughly Modern Millinery Anne Weston - By the Monkey-Ladder Vine Susan Wittig Albert - The Collage.

Millie soon begins to take delight in the flapper lifestyle, but problems arise when she checks into a hotel owned by the leader of a white slavery ring in China. Like the film on which it is based, it interpolates new tunes with some previously written songs. Determined to become a success, she tears up her return ticket "Not for the Life of Me". Bobbing her hair, she assumes the modern look of a " flapper " "Thoroughly Modern Millie". But she is quickly mugged on the streets of New York, losing her hat, scarf, purse and shoe. In a panic for someone to help her, she trips bypasser Jimmy Smith, a handsome, carefree young man who makes his way through life on whims and wits, who promptly lectures her on why she needs to head back home: Almost taking his advice, she changes her mind and yells after him, "Who needs a hat? Who needs a purse? And who needs YOU, mister whoever-you-are?! A week later, Millie is confronted by the hotel proprietress, the mysterious and sinister Mrs. Meers declares that Millie "has two minutes to pack, or find her things on the street! Millie, seeing this as a way to get her rent paid, suggests that Miss Dorothy can room with her until she can find her own, but only if Miss Dorothy pays the rent. Meers says she got an acting job in the Orient. Millie and Miss Dorothy then go up to their rooms, tap dancing to get the elevator to start. Meers to earn enough money to bring their mother from Hong Kong over to the states "Not for the Life of Me [reprise]". Her lightning speed stenography easily lands her the job. Meers with a drugged apple but when he sees her, he falls in love with her instantly and wants to save her from Mrs. Before Dorothy eats the drugged apple, Millie arrives Mrs. Meers has to act like she was getting a stain out of the carpet with "soy sauce" with the good news that she has found a job and a boss to marry. As the girls rush off to their rooms, Mrs. To celebrate their success the girls go to a speakeasy , where they meet Jimmy, but the club is raided by the police. Jimmy asks Millie to a party hosted by famous singer Muzzy van Hossmere, and she accepts. After the party, Millie explains to Jimmy how she is going to marry Trevor. She also tells him off for being a "skirt chaser" and "womanizer. Millie realizes that she loves Jimmy "Jimmy". Act II At Sincere Trust, Millie tells the other stenographers that she is "completely over" Jimmy, then realizes she is still in love; the girls try to convince her to let him go "Forget About the Boy". Millie places more conviction into marrying Graydon, but when Dorothy comes to visit Millie at work, Mr. Graydon is immediately smitten with her instead "Ah! The two set up a date together. While Millie is brooding over her lost chances, Jimmy breaks in through the window and asks her to dinner. Back at the Hotel Priscilla, Mrs. Meers stops his ranting by reminding them of why they work for her, to raise money to see their mother again. She convinces them to go along with the plan "Muqin". Millie is confused by her feelings for Jimmy and her desire not to be poor and initially rejects him. She tells the story of how she met her late husband, a supposedly poor but goodhearted man who gave her a green glass necklace. Regardless of his income status, she loved him anyway, and she later realized that her green glass necklace was actually genuine emerald. Millie reconsiders her feelings and finally realizes that she would rather have a green-glass love with Jimmy "Gimme, Gimme". Just as she returns to Jimmy to confess her feelings, they encounter Graydon, who was stood up by Miss Dorothy for their date, and is drunkenly singing, annoying Dexter and his wife, Daphne, who are also on a date. Graydon tells Millie and Jimmy that Mrs. Meers told him Miss Dorothy had checked out of the hotel. When Millie recalls that several other tenants had also suddenly "checked out", and that all of them were orphans, Millie, Jimmy, and Graydon realize what Mrs. They persuade Muzzy to pose as a new orphan in town to trick Mrs. Meers, who takes the bait, is exposed as the mastermind of the slavery ring, and is then taken to the police station. Meanwhile, Ching Ho had already rescued Miss Dorothy and won her heart. And Miss Dorothy turns out to be his sister, an heiress named Dorothy Carnegie Mellon Vanderbilt van Hossmere, and unlike the film she ends up not with the dismayed Trevor Graydon, but with Ching Ho. Both Jimmy and Dorothy had disguised their family name to avoid being found out as society heirs. At the very end of the musical after the bows , Bun Foo and Ching Ho are once again reunited with their mother.

3: Michael Mayer Discusses Miller, Marilyn and a Revised Staging of After the Fall | Playbill

Anthology of British mystery stories. Contents: A tale of one city / Anne Perry --Four calling birds / Val McDermid --Thoroughly modern millinery / Marilyn Todd

Malaprop, running October 30 - November Check out footage of the cast in rehearsal below! The Rivals is the story of a wealthy young woman, Lydia Languish, who will lose a portion of her wealth if she does not marry someone of whom her guardian, Mrs. Between mistaken identities, scheming servants, and unintentionally misused words, The Rivals is sure to have audiences laughing. BroadwayWorld recently had the opportunity to speak with Harris about her experience with The Rivals. The opening is set for Thursday, October 25 at 7: Leading off the cast is Salome B. Smith is a recent graduate of Alabama State University where she performed in many theatrical productions including The Color Purple, Rent and Carousel. Clark has appeared in numerous regional productions including Thoroughly Modern Millie, Showboat, Chicago, and Hairspray. Nix was last seen on Broadway in Beautiful: The Carole King Musical. For over 40 years this worldwide sensation has captivated audiences with the timeless story of Jesus Christ during his last week on Earth. Audiences can expect to enjoy many different aspects of this musical theater classic. Based on the famously funny farce about Mrs. Time to Dance the Night Away! Get to know the cast below as they begin Broadway performances! Festival events kick off on Monday, October 22 with Thank You, 30! The Tony-Award winning musical opens October 26, and runs through November 10, Engeman Theater announces the cast and creative team for ELF. Performances begin on Thursday, November 15 and run through Sunday, December 30, Mayer with music and lyrics by George and Ira Gershwin. The world premiere is helmed by acclaimed director Moises Kaufman, with choreography by the legendary Bill T. Paradise Square is produced by special arrangement with Garth H. Polk Theatre on Friday, November 16? Both shows are on sale now through VisTix at moonlightstage. The gala supports the rescue, care, placement and potential rehoming of thousands of animals every year. Danny Burstein hosts Broadway Salutes, and more! The production will run from October 30 to November 18, , with opening night set for Thursday, November 1.

4: Alumni - Costume Design - Los Angeles City College

Thoroughly Modern Millinery 2 copies; Todd, Marilyn. Other names: Date of birth: 20th Century. Marilyn Todd was born in Harrow, but now lives in West Sussex.

Dolly makes a living through what she calls "meddling" — matchmaking and numerous sidelines, including dance instruction and mandolin lessons "I Put My Hand In". She is currently seeking a wife for grumpy Horace Vandergelder, the well-known half-a-millionaire, but it becomes clear that Dolly intends to marry Horace herself. Horace explains to his two clerks, Cornelius Hackl and Barnaby Tucker, that he is going to get married because "It Takes a Woman" to cheerfully do all the household chores. Horace leaves for New York and leaves Cornelius and Barnaby to run the store. Cornelius decides that he and Barnaby need to get out of Yonkers. They blow up some tomato cans to create a terrible stench and a good alibi to close the store. Dolly mentions that she knows two ladies in New York they should call on: Irene Molloy and her shop assistant, Minnie Fay. Irene and Minnie open their hat shop for the afternoon. Irene wants a husband, but does not love Horace Vandergelder. She declares that she will wear an elaborate hat to impress a gentleman "Ribbons Down My Back". Cornelius and Barnaby arrive at the shop and pretend to be rich. Horace and Dolly arrive at the shop, and Cornelius and Barnaby hide from him. Minnie screams when she finds Cornelius hiding in the armoire. Horace is about to open the armoire himself, but Dolly, Irene and Minnie distract him with patriotic sentiments related to subjects like Betsy Ross and The Battle of the Alamo shown in the famous lyrics "Alamo, remember the Alamo! Cornelius sneezes, and Horace storms out, realizing there are men hiding in the shop, but not knowing they are his clerks. Dolly arranges for Cornelius and Barnaby, who are still pretending to be rich, to take the ladies out to dinner to the Harmonia Gardens restaurant to make up for their humiliation. She teaches Cornelius and Barnaby how to dance since they always have dancing at such establishments "Dancing". Soon, Cornelius, Irene, Barnaby, and Minnie are happily dancing. They go to watch the great 14th Street Association Parade together. Alone, Dolly decides to put her dear departed husband Ephram behind her and to move on with life "Before the Parade Passes By". Dolly catches up with the annoyed Vandergelder, who has missed the whole parade, and she convinces him to give her matchmaking one more chance. She tells him that Ernestina Money would be perfect for him and asks him to meet her at the swanky Harmonia Gardens that evening. Horace arrives with his date, but she proves neither as rich nor as elegant as Dolly had implied; furthermore she is soon bored by Horace and leaves, as Dolly had planned she would. Cornelius, Barnaby, and their dates arrive, unaware that Horace is also dining at the restaurant. Cornelius and Barnaby grow increasingly anxious as they discover they have little more than a dollar left. Dolly makes her triumphant return to the Harmonia Gardens and is greeted in style by the staff "Hello, Dolly! Barnaby is delighted that he can now pay the restaurant bill, while Horace finds only a little spare change. Barnaby and Cornelius realize that the wallet must belong to Horace. The ensuing free-for-all culminates in a trip to night court. Cornelius and Barnaby confess that they have no money and have never been to New York before. Dolly convinces the judge that their only crime was being in love. The judge finds everyone innocent and cleared of all charges, but Horace is declared guilty and forced to pay damages. A chastened Horace Vandergelder finally admits that he needs Dolly in his life, but Dolly is unsure about the marriage until her late husband sends her a sign. Characters[ edit ] Dolly Gallagher Levi: A widow in her middle years who has decided to begin her life again. She is a matchmaker, meddler, opportunist, and a life-loving woman. A well-known half-a-millionaire, he is a widower, gruff, authoritative, and set in his ways. Energetic, enthusiastic, and adventurous young man who has a sweet innocence about him. A widow and a beautiful, smart, fun-loving milliner with a hat shop in New York. Dolly has introduced her to Horace Vandergelder but she yearns for romance. A young and explosive struggling artist seeking to marry Ermengarde. The young niece of Horace Vandergelder. She cries often and wants her independence and wants to marry Ambrose. A white-whiskered night court judge. Easily moved to tears by romance. Characters and original cast[ edit ] Character.

5: thoroughly modern | Tumblr

"Thoroughly Modern Millinery" by Marilyn Todd. A group of Bright Young Things, most involved in the art world, are all possible suspects in the murder of obnoxious French painter Louis Boucord. Light and charming with a touch of darkness and a satisfying ending, as well as a smidgen of romance.

6: Marilyn Todd | LibraryThing

The mammoth book of roaring twenties whodunnits. Kiss the razor's edge / Mike Stotter --Thoroughly modern millinery / Marilyn Todd --The day of two cars / Gillian.

7: Bombardier Experience Magazine 29 by Spafax - Issuu

Thoroughly Modern Millinery - Pinterest.

8: The Best New British Mysteries II | Open Library

Staple favorites like Mark Billingham, John Mortimer, H.R.F. Keating, John Harvey, Peter Robinson, Val McDermid, Anne Perry, Amy Myers, Diamond Dagger winner Robert Barnard, Keith Miles (also known as Edward Marston), Judith Cutler, Peter Turnbull and Martin Edwards also make welcome returns to the series.

9: Thoroughly Modern Millie at Milton Keynes Theatre | Ernie's Theatre Blog

Sweeney Todd (audio only) Thoroughly Modern Millie OBC The Nightman Cometh Marilyn An American Fable Thoroughly Modern Millie // 2.

Screwtape to Wormwood on peaks and troughs Teach yourself visually Outlook 2007 Bloodlines the ruby circle The marriage of Oceanus and Brittonia Corporate finance ross westerfield jaffe 9th edition solutions Skills for Adolescence Mirza ghalib history in urdu Medieval English borough Third party insurance in Australia Conductivities and viscosities in pure and in mixed solvents. Baby boomers and hearing loss Law on the Last Frontier Historical notices of St. Anns parish in Ann Arundel county, Maryland Toyota previa automotive repair manual Arrangements at the mantap (diagram) Cowboy in the wheat Father Babad to Cecilia 83 Indian mutual funds handbook First edition book of mormon A report on migrant labor in Michigan. An impartial witness Family narratives A southern flight Endophytic bacteria and their potential applications Moro, lasso, al mio duolo Carlo Gesualdo The donkey that sneezed Rediscovering the spirit Ragtime in unfamiliar bars Saint Chola K. Kvashay-Boyle More emigrants in bondage, 1614-1775 An adventure with the Apaches. Formal Aspects of Measurement (Workshops in Computing) Qualitative and quantitative chemical analysis Microelectronic systems 3 checkbook Intas veterinary product list Powerhouse conferences Serving teen parents in a welfare reform environment Statics Suspension Cable Roofs Chemical Children Public diplomacy in the years ahead