

1: PET of the WEEK: Meet Toby - Glenside Local

RIP Toby! Merkmusic's dog will be remembered!

Growing nostalgic about my youth, I decided to post some memories of a lost era: Moline, Illinois and the Quad-Cities. A Mass of Christian Burial will be Pius X Church, Rock Island. Visitation will be 4 to 7 p. Monday at Rafferty Funeral Home, 1st St. A, Moline, with a Christian wake service at 3: Entombment will be at St. A memorial fund has been established. Toby was born July 27, , in Watervliet, Mich. He married Stephanie K. Toby was a member of the Moline Jaycees, where he served as past president and a state vice president, as well as earning recognition as a United States Jaycee Senator. He was a member of the Bettendorf Park Band, was a former lector at St. My wife and I knew he had been in and out of the hospital and living at Rosewood Care. He told us our dog Sassy would be welcome at Rosewood, so that made it especially fun to take her for the visit. My wife and I had a long visit with Toby. So Toby was a family friend, for 50 years. Band friendships were a natural. We had an enormous room where people congregated after school. He was great about it, but questioned me closely after that, when I needed a ride. Apart from relating some facts, nothing in his conversation suggested that his life was something other than ordinary. He loved to talk about his family and dog. It was difficult to leave. Toby is sitting in front of the tubas. Posted by Gregory Jackson at 9:

2: My Business - Home

In memory of our great friend, loyal comforter, memer and bringer of happiness i present his memorial video, rest in peace Toby.

Nick buries his share under an orange tree sapling in his garden; his wife, Julia, thinks that the tree is a surprise gift and mentions how content she is with their life together. Nick realizes that they do not need the gold, and decides to submit it as evidence. Time stops around Nick and he is drawn into a vortex in the sky. In the afterlife, as penance for his thievery, Nick is recruited for the R. The Rest In Peace Department. Left unchecked, these souls become "deados", monsters disguised as humans, and when their souls begin to rot, the environment rots around them. He is partnered with Roycephus "Roy" Pulsipher, a former U. Marshal and participant in the American Civil War. Roy explains that R. Nick appears as an old Chinese man while Roy appears as a beautiful blonde woman. On his first field mission, Nick aids Roy in interrogating a suspected deado and discovers the perpetrator is in possession of gold like he and Hayes had stolen. Nick tricks the informant into revealing Hayes as his contact. Roy and Nick track Hayes and observe him handing the gold off to a deado whom they stop and interrogate. The deado overpowers them, taking the gold and transforming into a hulking monster that leads them on a chase through the city that attracts the attention of normal humans and causes a panic. Chief Mildred Proctor receives orders to remove Roy and Nick from the case and from active duty due to this exposure. Proctor learns from Eternal Affairs that the gold could be used to construct the Staff of Jericho , which will reverse the flow of souls from earth to the afterlife. Roy and Nick argue, and Nick leaves by himself to try again to reveal himself to Julia. Roy tails him and they argue but finally make amends and decide to work together to stop whatever Hayes is planning. They discover that Hayes is a deado and arrest him, but a confiscated item of his freezes the whole department. Hayes and a group of deados escape with the remainder of the gold and assemble the Staff of Jericho an Obelisk of gold. Hayes takes Julia hostage and stabs her as a necessary human sacrifice to activate the staff. Close to death, Julia sees Nick for who he is; and they share a tearful farewell. Later, Proctor informs Nick that Julia will live. As a reward, Roy gives Nick a new appearance, but he is dismayed to find it is that of a Girl Scout. Kevin Bacon as Bobby Hayes, [10] a detective lieutenant of the Boston Police Department who is in league with the deados. Mary-Louise Parker as Mildred Proctor:
