Watch the Darkest Minds after reading this review Lindsey Bahr / AP film writer. Kids under the age of 18 are being persecuted by adults for their special powers in "The Darkest Minds," an adaptation of book one of Alexandra Bracken's young adult trilogy that's about five years and 15 movie dystopias too late to feel the least bit fresh or interesting.

Home Occupation of the American Mind A look at the information wars waged by Israel and its supporters to win the hearts and minds of the American people. This film is no longer available online. Roger Waters Executive Producer: Sut Jhally Associate Producer: Over the course of 51 days, Israel dropped nearly 20,000 tonnes of explosives on Gaza, killing more than 2,000 Palestinians, wounding tens of thousands and obliterating countless homes. The overwhelming majority of the casualties were civilians. However, the American reaction held firm in its support for Israel, in spite of the atrocities taking place on the ground. The same poll showed that 12 percent of respondents believed Israel was not using enough force. Sut Jhally, professor of communication, University of Massachusetts However shocking, the unrelenting American support for Israel was nothing new. The Israeli perspective dominates the American media and pro-Israel talking points are repeated by the highest government officials and recycled endlessly by the media. How, if at all, can propaganda be uncovered if the mainstream point of view is so dominant? Zionism, born in the late 19th century, saw the idea of Jewish entitlement to Palestine come to fruition. From an estimated 7 percent, the Jewish population of Palestine grew exponentially to a third of the total population by 1947. It was then that the British colonial government handed matters over to the newly formed United Nations. Arab leaders rejected the proposal but their protests went unheard as Zionist leaders declared Israel a state under the new UN borders, triggering the first Arab-Israeli war of 1948. A crushing defeat of the military coalition of Arab states - including Jordan then known as TransJordan, Egypt and Lebanon - saw Israel take control of 78 percent of historic Palestine by the time armistice was declared in 1949. In spite of the UN Security Council passing Resolution 181 - a call for Israel to withdraw its armed forces as per international law forbidding the takeover of territory by war - American public opinion of Israeli actions did not waver. The invasion of Lebanon in 1982, however, saw a change in the favoured tides for Israel. As images of the Sabra and Shatila massacre flooded into American news media, Israel suddenly needed to defend itself. The war in Lebanon would trigger the need for an official public relations strategy, known in Hebrew as "Hasbara". However, with the internet and the rise of social media "news", the Israeli government and pro-Israel groups have had a harder time managing American perceptions of the conflict. So then do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. For the most part they are self explanatory. Where they are not, we will cover them in this article. God commands us in His word to know what His will for our lives are individually. Paul wrote in Galatians 5: You have heard the saying, "An idle mind is the play ground of the Devil. It is only when we disobey God in our use of time, allow our minds to be idle, that Satan is able to get a foothold. Paul wrote, Romans 8: How then do we bring the flesh under control? How do we keep from sinning? How do we keep Satan from gaining control of our minds? Paul wrote in Romans It is when we become idle and our minds become idle that our flesh begins to drift toward its natural inclination to sin. Let me cite you an example in my own life. This involved four hours a day in class instruction with a twenty minute break in between five days a week. I used my twenty minute break to go out on campus and share Jesus with students. The campus had a population of over 15, students. It took me about five minutes to find a student to talk to, ten minutes to present to them the Gospel through a salvation tract, and five minutes to get back to class. I saw many students come to Christ during this twenty minutes a day sharing the Gospel. When I would go out and do this with my break, God would bless me in my electronics Luke 6: One day I decided to go to the break room and get a coke and a candy bar. I sat down at a table and while drinking my coke I looked around and noticed all the beautiful girls that were on campus. An idle mind is the playground of the Devil. Now there is nothing wrong with enjoying the flowers in the field, but I was idle and once these thoughts entered in, other thoughts also entered in and it was all down hill from there. Given the opportunity to sin, the flesh will sin. So then, how do we bring our flesh under control and keep it from sinning? We become board and start looking for ways to satisfy the desires of the flesh. Paul wrote, Galatians 5: Getting back to our main discussion, how then does Satan gain control of the mind. An idle mind is the playground of the Devil plain and simple. That is what Chapter 5 of Section 1 in the Basic Textbook is all about: A second way Satan gains control of the mind is when we place our trust in what many Christians mistakenly call the Holy Spirit. What do I mean by this? I mean "God told me to do this. Jesus said in John 8: How do we know who is the true Jesus preached about or what is truly the Holy Spirit talking to us or what is the true Gospel preached? The Mormons have a different Jesus and gospel, the Jehovah Witnesses another Jesus and gospel, and the Muslims a totally different Jesus and gospel. What is the true Gospel? The Bible tells us who the true Jesus is and what is truly the voice of the Holy Spirit and what the true Gospel is. Paul wrote, "For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received, that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, and that He was buried, and that He was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures. The Bible is the bases for what we believe or do not believe. Should they consult the dead on behalf of the living? To the law and to the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, it is because they have no dawn. Our flesh is in bondage to sin. All Christians struggle with lust. However, when a Christian deliberately chooses to turn to pornography, they are with their will choosing to sin. That is a doorway. Christians I have worked with who have willfully turned to pornographic sights on the web have found afterwards that regaining control of their minds is a real battle and is not possible in most cases without the help of other Christians. What do I mean by non-Biblical types of meditation. What kind of meditation is Biblical, does the Bible teach? Joshua wrote in Joshua 1: Meditation in the Bible is always active, it is never passive. What is the active thing the Bible tells us to do in meditation? What is it trying to teach me? I had a friend once who told me he had a problem spending more than ten minutes of His time in prayer because his mind would wonder and before he was done he found he was thinking about sinful things. What was he doing wrong? He was praying and waiting upon the Lord with a passive mind. This is not how we are to seek the Lord when we pray. When we pray, first, we are to worship the Lord, thank Him for His goodness in our lives, for our salvation and for answers to previous prayers. Give thanks to Him; bless His name. So that your trust may be in Yehovah, I have taught you today, even you. Have I not written to you excellent things of counsels and knowledge, To make you know the certainty of the words of truth that you may correctly answer to him who sent you? God says that His Word is equal to His name. Being equal to His Name means equal to His character. God tells us in this passage of Scripture that His Character and what the Bible teaches about His character are one and the same. They are one and the same. Now what is wrong meditation? Wrong meditation is what Eastern religions and Satanic cults teach you to do, and that is to blank your mind while waiting for Satan to come and fill it, and fill it he will. Years ago I prayed with a man who came forward in church to receive Christ. He had been heavily involved in Transcendental Meditation. This is a religion which stresses strongly blanking ones mind in meditation. As a result many unclean spirits entered him. After he came to Christ, he had great difficulty gaining control over his mind because he had passively yielded his mind to Satan for so many years. This is also what Satanists do to gain instruction from Satan and to receive demons, they plank their minds. They will focus upon a burning candle and clear their minds of all thought until an outside force enters their minds and takes control. This is just the opposite of what God asks of us. God never takes control of our minds. He created us in His image. That means like God we have free independent will. God never violates the independent will of anyone. Even after we give our lives to Christ, he does not take control of our minds. Jesus will tell us what His will for our lives are, but he will never force us to do his will. We are always in control of ourselves and must choose to obey Him. He never requires us to yield our minds and bodies to Him to control and walk through like demon possession. Jesus was not a man possessed by God, Jesus was God in bodily form. Paul wrote in Colossians 2: We then choose with our will whether to obey Him or not. To have a relationship with Jesus then means to walk in obedience to His revealed will to us individually. But notice we must make the choice, He never forces us to do anything. Getting back to our original passage quoted in this article, in James 4: When we are not choosing to walk in obedience to Christ, we cannot resist the devil and we become open and under His control, and Satan gains control over our minds. You see, there is no in between: This is what Jesus meant in Matthew Paul wrote in Romans 1: Paul wrote in Ephesians: Among them we too all formerly lived in the lusts of our flesh, indulging the desires of the flesh and the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, even as the rest. Paul wrote "But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not carry out the desire of the flesh" Galatians 5: How do we know when we are walking in the Holy Spirit and when we are not?

Remember this title for another six month, because I am confident this film will make a journey to the west coast of the USA to compete at the 89th Academy Awards in the coming February. If this film fails to make, then that would be a great disappointment despite having no idea of what are the other four films. So this is just for now, my stance may change later. Anyway, the film was heartbreakingly amazing. And this is a Danish story, sets in just after the end of the war where prisoners of the war were used to clean up the mess. In the opening the teen German POWs were trained to defuse the land mine explosives and then later the unit was handed over to the Danish sergeant Carl Rasmussen where they are all going to work in one of the west coast landmines that was used to defend the Scandinavia by the Nazi. That is the story told how it all ends in the remaining parts. Using of the prisoners as the labourers is a violation, according to the Geneva rule. Watching a film about the brave soldiers inspires us and bring patriotism, but in this those teen kid screaming whenever something goes wrong really brings heartache. So not everybody feels comfortable with it, especially the family audience. But there were lots of edgy moments and you would never know what events follows. It was a simple narration, but the visuals talked itself more than anything else. All the actors were outstanding, especially those German teens and of course the Danish sergeant Carl. There are a couple of small twists, but there are some scenes which are not easy to get over. Even though we know those were just fake, but that does not work once you totally into the story deeply. This is a different kind of emotional film, something you rarely experience. The director who is also the writer must be appreciated for handling it perfectly. Especially keeping the screenplay uncomplicated and between the two nations, where in the real event involves the British officials. I have never seen his other films, but this one will define him forth and the people are going to recognise him. I have never seen such film, I mean seen some where the kids were tortured, but this was very unique and totally a different perspective for that takes place in the backdrop of the WWII. Especially the Germans perspective is the very rare kind. I mean, come on, who would do such film where your own nation, if not the whole nation, the one who represent was shown in the negative shade over the Nazi Germans. This is definitely one of the best films of the year. Was this review helpful to you?
