March TBDth This instruction is to build the casting skills of Club Members with beginning or intermediate casting skills by learning to double haul and to become comfortable and confident with the Double Haul. Chironomids are still the food item on the trout diet. Members are reminded that a new fishing license and parking permit are necessary! We meet at the launch ramp and once again try our hand at catching and releasing fish. Some claim that there is a skill to it, while others claim luck. A good time is had by all sharing fishing stories when everyone returns to the launch ramp for a Club sponsored lunch. If you caught the tour last year, then you already know how much fun it is. The tour showcases fly fishing short films from around the globe and offers something exciting for just about everyone. At the age of fourteen, my father gave me his Orvis Bamboo fly rod and that was the beginning of my venture into the world of fly fishing. And even farther south, I began fly fishing in the salt. In , my family and I moved to Montana to begin my career as a professional fly fishing instructor and guide. Molly has been fortunate to have had many professional fly fishing mentors. Molly has learned from them and feels it is her duty and privilege to share the history of the sport through the most current techniques, philosophies, and opportunities. It is the sharing of this broad perspective of fly fishing that makes Molly unique. For women, I provide instructional, guided fly fishing destination trips in Montana. Learning and exploring the sport of fly fishing is a passion for Molly and sharing that passion is her goal. Tie The Knot Fly Fishing is a unique business. Molly Semenik utilizes her 40 plus years of fly fishing to create a total experience. Tie The Knot is about learning and exploring fly fishing. Tie The Knot Fly Fishing is about learning patience, careful observation, skills and the art of fly fishing. Participants range from kids just learning to fly fish to guides wishing to improve their skills. Lastly, Molly is available for anyone interested in private casting instruction. It all depends on the level of interest. Come Celebrate Earth Day April 22nd, This is a family oriented event where youngsters and parents have an opportunity to learn about the third largest river on the West Coast - the Skagit River. If you are a fly fishing steelhead enthusiast this is an opportunity to show your support for the continuation of catch and release steelheading. So bring the family out to Steelhead Park on Sunday April 22nd - the fun starts at
