July 10, Summary: The pilgrims also do not know what they have to do and what to not. Umrah is a Non-obligatory ritual and every Muslim wants to perform it even once in his life. The ones who got the honor to be the guest of Almighty are happy to the extent that cannot be measured. The pilgrims become excited because of their holy journey towards the sacred land of the Saudi Kingdom but they also do not know what they have to do and what to not. Of course, some confusion is there because this will be your first Umrah. So, in order to perform your Umrah without worries and with comfort, it is recommended to the pilgrims to search thoroughly before going to the holy land. Here we will tell you about some of the things you should do before going to your first Umrah. Searching is working; Yes, it is true in every situation that you encounter in your life. The searching is even more eminent in huge matters like performing Hajj or Umrah. If you do not search beforehand to your holy pilgrimage, then probably your most of the precious time on the holy land gets wasted in doing stuff that should be said useless on that sacred piece of land. Do the math beforehand; As it will be your first Umrah then probably you do not have the idea how the travel agency industry works. It is advised to search numerous travel agents and Umrah or Hajj travel companies and try to locate the reliable travel agency and most affordable Umrah packages that will be right in accordance to your needs. The package is best to opt if you are running low on the budget yet has utmost desire to be the guest of the Almighty. The intention is imminent; Ihram is the announcement by a pilgrim that he has made the Niyyah intention perform Hajj or Umrah. That all of the things that were Halaal on him gets Haraam now. There are some rules of Ihram and the rules are simple that you may violate without thinking. This probably will affect your Umrah. So, to avoid lessening up your virtue of your Umrah, it is better to know some of its rules. You are not allowed in Ihram to use fragranced soap so bring an unscented soap along with you or buy it from the holy city. Also, covering your head is forbidden with Ihram. Men should cover their awrah in the state of Ihram and it is not a good practice to expose you while wearing it. You can also consult detailed articles on different sites regarding Ihram and rules of Ihram. For the purpose, our site has complete information so consult it for a good piece of information. It is recommended to the pilgrims to visit the Rawdah Shareef at night time. Due to that hustle and bustle, you will probably forget or did not supplicate properly. That you have been thinking before coming to the Rawdah. Rawdah Mubarak is carpeted green so you will recognize it easily and at night you will get the chance to supplicate in a peaceful atmosphere. We have the huge range of Hajj packages and Umrah packages at affordable price. Call us for details: I keep track of the latest happenings in Mecca and Medina in order to keep the clients updated through British Hajj Travel Social Share.

2: Things to Know about Islam – Hajj

Things to Know About Hajj and Umrah Journey Travelling to hajj and umrah is a spiritual journey and one of the most important achievements of every Muslim. Muslims from all over the world travel.

World in Photos 0 Shares Millions of Muslims gather every year in the holy, Saudi Arabian city of Mecca for Hajj – a pilgrimage that includes a series of specific rituals carried out by the Prophet Mohammad nearly 1, years ago. Hajj takes place from Aug. But what are the steps of Hajj and why is it significant? Here is what you should know. When does Hajj occur? The date of Hajj is determined by the Islamic calendar. It takes place in Dhul-Hijjah, which is the 12th month of this calendar between the eighth and 13th days of the month. The Islamic calendar is based on the lunar year, which is shorter than the Gregorian year. This means the date of Hajj changes from year to year in the Gregorian calendar, which is used in the West. What is the significance of Hajj? Completing Hajj at least once in a lifetime is considered obligatory for Muslims who have the financial means and are healthy enough to carry out the pilgrimage. Hajj is one of the five pillars of Islam – actions that are viewed as the foundation of Islam. What is the difference between Hajj and Umrah? If the same pilgrimage is carried out at any other time of year it is called Umrah. What are the steps of Hajj? Ihram is meant to show that all pilgrims are equal in front of God. When men are in this state they have to wear white unsewn clothes, usually two pieces draped around the body; women wear loose clothing that covers their bodies except for the faces and hands. The Fifth Pillar of Islam Day 1 Pilgrims carry out Tawaf, a ritual in which they walk counter-clockwise around the Kaaba, which is a sacred cube-shaped building covered in black, gold-embroidered silk. When carrying out the Tawaf ritual, pilgrims walk around the Kaaba seven times. If they are close enough to it, pilgrims also touch and kiss the Kaaba, which is the most sacred site in Islam. After completing the Tawaf ritual, pilgrims walk or run seven times between Safa and Marwah, two hills near the Kaaba. After the morning prayer, pilgrims travel to the city of Mina -- by foot, bus or car -- and spend the day there praying. They spend the night in Mina. Day 2 The second day is called the Day of Arafat. Pilgrims spend the day praying at Mount Arafat, a hill east of Mecca, also known as the Mount of Mercy. According to Islam, the prophet Mohammad gave his last sermon at this hill. After the sun sets, pilgrims head to Muzdalifah, an open space near Mecca. They pray here and collect pebbles that they will later use for a ritual known as Stoning of the Devil. The Hajj pilgrimage Day 3 Pilgrims stay at Muzdalifah until right before sunrise. They then go to Mina, where they start the ritual of throwing seven pebbles at the largest of three pillars called Jamarat. The act symbolizes throwing pebbles at the devil. It is based on the story of how God told Abraham in a dream to sacrifice his son. A devil tried to tempt Abraham to disobey God. Abraham then threw pebbles at the devil. But when he was about to sacrifice his son, Abraham realized that God had replaced the son with a sheep. So he slaughtered the animal instead of his son. The point of the story is that God never wanted Abraham to slaughter his son – God was just testing Abraham. After throwing the pebbles, pilgrims have to slaughter an animal -- usually a sheep, like Abraham did -- or they can pay someone else to do it for them. This happens on the day that Muslims worldwide start celebrating Eid al-Adha, an Islamic holiday. After the sacrifice, men carrying out the Hajj shave their heads. Pilgrims then go to Mecca, where they carry out the tawaf again, either the same day or the following day. Days 4 and 5 The ritual of stoning the pillars in Mina is repeated. Pilgrims can then return to Mecca before the sun sets. Before leaving Mecca, pilgrims repeat the tawaf ritual one last time. Day 6 Pilgrims who stayed in Mina repeat the stoning ritual before heading back to Mecca and carrying out the tawaf ritual. What is the history of Hajj? The specific steps of Hajj are the same as the ones carried out by the Prophet Mohammad in A. The tradition of carrying out pilgrimages in Mecca predate Islam as well. Before the spread of Islam, Bedouins used to make pilgrimages to Mecca and worship their Gods at the Kaaba.

3: Hajj and 'Umrah Quiz - How much are you prepared for Hajj and 'Umrah?

Hajj: It is the pilgrimage that Muslims make to the holy city of Makkah, where the house of Allah, the holy Kabah is located. Hajj takes place in the month of Zulhijja, the last month of the Islamic calendar.

It is obligatory for every Muslim once in their lifetime, provided they are physically fit and financially capable. Hajj is performed over specific days during a designated Islamic month. However, Umrah can be performed at any time. Although they share common rites, Umrah can be performed in less than a few hours while Hajj is more time-consuming, and involves more rituals. Types of Umrah[edit] A certain type of the Umrah exists depending on whether or not the pilgrim wishes to perform Umrah in the Hajj period, thus combining their merit. More precisely, the rituals of the Umrah are performed first, and then the Hajj rituals are performed. Rituals[edit] The pilgrim performs a series of ritual acts symbolic of the lives of Ibrahim Abraham and his second wife Hajar , and of solidarity with Muslims worldwide. Pilgrims enter the perimeter of Mecca in a state of Ihram and perform: Men are encouraged to do this three times at a hurried pace, followed by four times, more closely, at a leisurely pace. The baby Ismael Ishmael cried and hit the ground with his foot some versions of the story say that an angel scraped his foot or the tip of his wing along the ground , and water miraculously sprang forth. This source of water is today called the Well of Zamzam. Taqsir is a partial shortening of the hair typically reserved for women who cut a minimum of one inch or more of their hair. A halq is a complete shave of the head , usually performed on men. Both of these signify the submission of will to God over glorifying physical appearances. These rituals complete the Umrah, and the pilgrim can choose to go out of ihram. Although not a part of the ritual, most pilgrims drink water from the Well of Zamzam. Various sects of Islam perform these rituals with slightly different methods. The peak times of pilgrimage are the days before, during and after the Hajj and during the last ten days of Ramadan. History[edit] According to the Muslim traditional accounts, access to the Holy Site, and thus the right to practice the Hajj and Umrah pilgrimages have not always been granted to Muslims. During that time, Mecca was allegedly occupied by Arab Pagans who used to worship idols inside Mecca. According to the traditional Muslim stories, in AD 6 AH , inspired by a dream that Muhammad had had while in Madinah, in which he was performing the ceremonies of Umrah, he and his followers approached Mecca from Medina. They were stopped at Hudaibiya, Quraysh a local tribe refused entry to the Muslims who wished to perform the pilgrimage. Muhammad is said to have explained that they only wished to perform a pilgrimage, and subsequently leave the city, however the Qurayshites disagreed. On the year it was signed, the followers of Mohammed were forced to return home without having performed Umrah. After the transfer of power, the people of Mecca who according to the Muslim traditional narrative had persecuted and driven away the early Muslims, and had fought against the Muslims due to their beliefs, were afraid of retribution. However, Muhammad forgave all of his former enemies. Ten people were ordered to be killed after the capture of Mecca:

4: 10 Pieces of Advice Before You Leave for Umrah | www.enganchecubano.com

Hajj in yesteryears was literally the journey of a lifetime (People used to spend an entire lifetime saving up the money to perform Hajj). This is one of the Hajj facts related to the past. The trip to Makkah used to be a grueling experience.

When this sacred journey towards Makkah al-Mukarrama starts, recite Talbiyah frequently on the way. Then enter the city very humbly and with great fondness still reciting Talbiyah. After arranging for your residence, proceed to the Haram Sharif to perform Umrah. It is taken off on the day of sacrifice. The only rites of Umrah are: You should be already in Ihram for Umrah before entering Mecca as mentioned above. You may recite the following supplication which is usually used before entering a mosque: Allah huma aftah li abwabe rahmate ka First Sight: Say Allahu Akbar three times Say La Ilaha Illallah three times Proclaim Darud on our beloved Prophet peace be upon him and very humbly and with tears in your eyes supplicate to Allah for whatever you wish. This is a special time for the acceptance of prayers. The idea is to praise and glorify your Creator before proclaiming Darud and supplications. Therefore, in lieu of Allahu Akbar and La Ilaha Illallah, you may recite some other similar holy verses if you so desire. Pass the upper sheet of Ihram from underneath the right arm and put it on the left shoulder. This act bares the right shoulder and is known as Iztaba. Ablutions vudu is essential for tawaf. Reciting of Talbiyah is stopped when you reach Hajar-e- Aswad, the starting point of tawaf. To achieve this end, you may get help from the black stripe on the floor. This stripe should be on your right side. Then without raising your hands make Niyyah intention for Umrah: Make it easy for me and accept it from me. Now point the palms of your hands again towards Hajar-e- Aswad and kiss them. This act of kissing Hajar-e-Aswad or pointing towards it is called Istilam. After Istilam, turn right and start tawaf counter clockwise. If so, do not touch them while in the state of Ihram, otherwise a dum will be required as a penalty. For the first three circuits of Tawaf of Umrah and Tawaf of Arrival, men are required to move their shoulders and walk with quick short steps. This act is called Ramal and is Sunnah. They walk normally during the remaining four circuits. There are no fixed supplications for tawaf but there are several recommended supplications listed in the books of Hajj and Umrah out of which the following supplication is easy to memorize: The Prophet of Islam peace be upon him has said that there are two kalimahs that are light on tongue and on the day of judgment they weigh heavy on the scale Mizan and are liked by Allah. It is obligatory to go around Hatim also while performing tawaf. Rukn Yamani and its Supplications: Touch it with both hands or with right hand. There is a beautiful supplication to be used while walking between Rukn Yamani and Hajar-e-Aswad: The first circuit is complete when you reach Hajar-e-Aswad. At Hajar-e-Aswad, start the second circuit by kissing it or pointing towards it as you started the first circuit, i. The End of Tawaf: Now Iztaba is finished, therefore, you cover your both shoulders with upper portion of the Ihram sheet. This does not apply to women. This is a highly sacred place where prayers are accepted. If you are unable to come close to Multazam, just face towards it and supplicate from a distance. Next offer two rakahs of nafls behind and close to Maqam Ibrahim without covering your head. If it is zawal time when sajdah is not allowed, you have to wait till this undesirable time is passed and then offer prayers. In the niyyah intention, say that you are offering 2 rakahs of nafls wajib al- tawaf. Recite Qul ya ayya hal kafron in the first rakah and Qulhu wallah in the second rakah. After this, supplicate to Allah in Arabic or in your own language. Ask Him whatever you wish and invoke His blessings. If it is not possible to offer this obligatory prayer near Maqam Ibrahim, it can be offered anywhere in Mataf, or in Hatim or anywhere in Masjid al-Haram or even at any place in Haram of Makkah. There are separate portions for men and women. Zamzam is the best available water in the world. Drink this water to fill while in standing position saying Bismillah. Then supplicate to Allah: I implore Thee for beneficial knowledge, for vast provisions, and for cure from every disease. Now there are only signs of these hills and the whole route between them is enclosed in a long gallery. The mother and son lived for five days on the food and water they had when the water was completely finished. The mother ran frantically seven times between the hills of Safa and Marwah in search of water for her son. Suddenly the fountain of Zamzam oozed miraculously near the feet of Hazrat Ismael. Come down from Safa and move towards Marwah while reciting this supplication: You may also praise Allah and ask for His mercy in your language or use supplications taken from the daily Salah. When you reach two green pillars between which men have to run but the women walk with their normal pace. One trip is over, second trip will be on Safa and third trip will be on Marwah. In the same way, the seventh trip will end at Marwah. In all trips the men will run between the green pillars but the women will walk in a normal way. Shaving or clipping of hair. Both shaving and clipping are permissible for men, though shaving is preferable. Women are, however, allowed to have a lock of their hair clipped. They are forbidden to shave their heads. After cutting the hair, umrah is complete. The restrictions of Ihram are finished. Now wear your everyday clothes and lead a normal life. Be thankful to Allah that He provided the opportunity for performing Umrah and lead rest of your life according to the commands of your Creator.

Hajj is an extraordinary act of worship and obligatory for every Muslim. Hajj-e-Badal is performed for his sake with money from his bequest.

March 19, 10 Pieces of Advice Before You Leave for Umrah Some people may be heading out for the spiritual journey of a lifetime soon, so I just wanted to take a moment and give a few pieces of advice for those who will be traveling soon to perform the beautiful Umrah journey. The following pieces of advice are amongst those that I received and some that I thought of while I was abroad in the sacred sites: Do your homework Learn about Makkah and Madinah. When I was preparing for my journey, I came across many different books that discuss Hajj and the virtues of Hajj. However, I found it difficult to find information on Umrah. Also, make a copy of your passport and important documents and email them to yourself and your loved ones so you have a copy if something goes awry. Company makes a man If you are going with other people, then make sure they are good people. Having good company can make a lasting impact on your journey. Barber hygiene At the conclusion of Umrah, it is customary for men and women to cut their hair. If you do decide to shave it recommended , then make sure the barber whom you visit uses a brand new disposable blade. The Saudi government requires it and most barbers follow this rule, but just be extra careful and have your barber open up your blade in front of you. Wait until you get back to the hotel so that you can take off your hijab and cut your hair. Take some Vaseline This advice is specific to men. Your legs will chaff and Vaseline can make a world of a difference. It is floored with green carpet and so it is easy to identify but difficult to take advantage of. You can visit places like the site of the battle of Uhud as well as Masjid Quba, which is the first masjid built by the Prophet Muhammad. Contact back home If you have a smartphone, you can download apps like Viber or MagicJack that make it easier to call home for free on WiFi, which is available in some hotel lobbies. Also, if you have an iPhone, you can use iMessaging to text other iPhone users while the phone is still in airplane mode using WiFi for free as well! Talk with people Ask them where they are from. I met people from countries I never expected to meet people from. There are people from all over the world. Makkah and Madinah are places of gathering for people from all over the world. Have you ever met people from Azerbaijan or Mauritius? Make dua Simple to say, but very important to do. Make dua for yourself, for others, for the entire Ummah. You are blessed with being in such a spiritual place. Have a beautiful journey. May Allah accept from you, Ameen!

7: How to Perform Hajj and Umrah | Step-by-Step Guide

The specific steps of Hajj are the same as the ones carried out by the Prophet Mohammad in A.D. in what is known as his "farewell pilgrimage." But the Kaaba was a sacred site before Islam.

Tweet What is Umrah? These rites are only performed during Hajj. The man perfumes his head and beard but not his Ihraam garments. There is no harm in what remains of it after Ihraam. There is nothing wrong if it is not possible to take a bath at Meeqaat. Men are to change into their clothing of Ihraam while the women only need to make their intention at that time in the clothing they are already wearing. There is no specific clothing designated for women, except that they are prohibited from wearing the Niqaab face-veil and gloves. Instead, they may cover their hands with the lower part of their khimaar head covering, while using the upper part of their jilbaab outer garment or a separate piece of fabric to cover their faces by drawing it down, if there is need to do so. No other clothing is allowed to be worn in addition to these – no underwear, no pants, no shirt, no turban, no hat, etc. The intention must be made in the heart, while the statement made afterwards is: The intention is made in the heart, while the tongue recites the opening Talbiyyah. So if you do that and are then prevented or become ill - then you may come out of Ihraam. Then repeat the Talbiyyah: In response to Your call. You have no partner. In the name of Allah! Exalt the mention of your Messenger. Forgive my sins, and open the gates of Your mercy for me. When touching the Stone, the following is said: When you reach the Yamaani corner touch it with your right hand, if possible, but do not kiss it, and say: During this Tawaaf it is preferred for a man to do two things: Make supplication from your heart, for that which will benefit you. Recite whatever you wish, supplicate to Allah by asking for good, recite the Quran, anything you wish. There are no specific statements or supplications to be recited during the Tawaaf that are authentically established in the Sunnah. However it is recommended to say between the two corners during each circumbulance as it is reported from the Messenger of Allah: Our Lord, grant us good in this life and good in the hereafter and save us from the punishment of the Hellfire. If it is not possible then you can pray them anywhere in the sacred mosque. The next stage is to go to Safaa. Upon approaching the foot of Safaa, the following verse is recited which means: None has the right to be worshipped except Allah alone, Who has no partner. To Him belongs the dominion, to Him belongs all praise, and He has power over everything. He fulfilled His promise, gave victory to His servant, and defeated the confederates alone. Then descend and go towards Marwah, running between the fluorescent green lights for men only, upon reaching Marwah climb upon it if it is possible, and repeat the same procedure as when ascending Safaa except you are not to recite the above-mentioned verse, because it is recited when ascending Safaa for the first time only. This completes one circuit. Then one continues back to Safaa running between the fluorescent green lights for men only - thus completing two circuits. There are no particular supplications to be recited between Safaa and Marwah. Seven circuits are to be completed ending the last one on Marwah. Then one is to have his hair cut although shaving it is better. Women should shorten their hair by a finger-tips length from the end.
