

The Bible is written in the power of the Holy Spirit by those who were inspired/chosen by God; they were vehicles that God used to bring His Word to the human kind. the quran was written by humans, not inspired by the true Living God, but their manipulative desires to control all.

We are going to look at all the verses which have any bearing on the subject and examine them in their context. Sometimes this context is only one verse or even half of a verse. But sometimes, it is necessary to examine a whole page in order to show clearly the meaning of a word or phrase. Muslim writers have also begun to recognize the need for this type of study. In the preface to his book, God of Justice, Dr. As an obvious, but unimportant example, he speaks of Al-Baidawi commenting that in the phrase "earth and heaven", earth is mentioned first "for when you have to climb, you move from bottom upwards. Rahbar claims to be the first Muslim to make this type of coordinated study. He says, "After all, an exhaustive collection is the full data. What right have we to quote a couple of passages on a subject when there are another three hundred on the same? Of this pioneer aspect of the work I am absolutely sure. Muslim scholarship is invited to improve upon the analysis or classifications of the exhaustive collections of Quranic contexts made herein, but that classified exhaustive collections are made here for the first time none will deny. In addition, there are some verses where the Arabic words were so important to the discussion that I chose to make my own literal translation. This bends the English out of shape, but my purpose was to allow those readers who are not familiar with Arabic to enter into the discussion. We will start with the Quranic verses referring to the Torah at the time of Jesus and then move forward through history to the verses referring to the Torah and the Gospel during the life of Muhammad. Finally we will look at the verses which specifically refer to tahrif change. The Forbidding Al-Tahrim Jesus says, "I have come to you The Battle Array Al-Saff I am the apostle of God to you, confirming that which IS between my hands from the Torah Recount my favor to you and to your mother when I strengthened you with the Holy Spirit, so that you spoke to the people in childhood and in maturity. I taught you the Book and Wisdom, the Torah and the Gospel We can only conclude from this that the True Unchanged Torah was present in the first century when Jesus lived. Recount my favor to you I inspired the disciples al-hawariyun to have faith in Me and My apostle Jesus. We believe in God and you must bear witness that we are Muslims submitted ones. Be ye helpers of God: We did not command it We learn from this verse that although monasticism is not of God, there were true believers among these followers of Jesus who received their "due reward" in heaven. Historically, monasticism started in the 4th century, although certain men, such as Paul of Thebes, lived a separate life as hermits in the third century. Anthony of Egypt was the first to organize even a loose group in AD, and in the Sinai, too, monasticism began about the same time. The Cave Al-Kahf He discusses various dates which terminate between and AD, and says that the Khalifa Wathiq AD sent an expedition to examine and identify the locality. Hamidullah mentions this possibility, but thinks that the passage refers to a time well before Christianity. The Zodiacal Signs Al-Buruj And they ill-treated them for no other reason than that they believed in God Yusuf Ali also mentions it as one of three possible explanations. B3], and "becoming the ones who prevailed" [B3]. In addition some true believers remained even when monasticism was practiced [B4] starting in the 4th century in Egypt. If references [B5] and [B6] were understood by Muhammad and the people of Mecca in their historical context to refer to Christians, then these are Quranic attestations that there were true Christians, acceptable to God, in Ephesus Modern Turkey in AD; and in Yemen in the 6th Century when these Christian Martyrs were burned alive. Admittedly the verses say nothing about the doctrines of these Christians. But true believers in groups as far apart as Turkey and Yemen would surely have left copies of their scriptures and writings -- some of which would have come down to us. If their scriptures had been different from the Torah and the Gospel which we know today, then we would certainly have found their traces. The City of Saba Saba Italics have been used for phrases speaking of groups of Jews or Christians at the time of Muhammad spoken of as believers or unbelievers in order to emphasize that there were always some true believers who would not have changed their own scriptures. The Originator of Creation Fatir How are they turned away? Those who REJECT the Book, and that book with which We sent our apostles, they shall know when the collars shall be around their necks, and the chains, they shall be dragged along. Winding Sand Tracts Al-Ahqaf When the reading was finished they returned to their people as warners. The Heifer Al-Baqara 2: Further, it is an explanation of the Torah and the Gospel "wherein there IS no doubt" [C3], and a guard over it [C13]. I have chosen to translate it word for word because that gives the sense of the present tense which it has. Sometimes it has the literal meaning "between or in his hands", but usually it is an idiom for "in his presence", or "in his power", or "in his possession", or "at his disposal". Examples are "The words are between your hands", meaning "you have the floor" or "you may speak". In the text Yusuf Ali translates this passage as "worked in front of him", but in a note he explains, the Jinns "worked under his eyes". With the other verses discussed above from this section they show that Muhammad acknowledged the existence of a valid Torah and Gospel "under his eyes". The Star Najm Gives a little, then hardens his heart? What has he knowledge of the unseen so that he can see? The Spirit of faith came down upon your heart with it that you might be one of the warners in the plain Arabic tongue. And truly it IS in the Scriptures Zubur of the former people. Has not a clear sign come to them in what IS in the former pages al-suhuf al-aulla? Gold Adornments Al-Zukhruf The Bee Al-Nahl Some of them are righteous, and some of them are not. We have tried them with blessings and with adversities in order that they might return to Us They were called to the Book of God Torah that it might judge between them. Then a party of them turned aside and declined. He proposed to these Jews to determine the question by actual reference to their Scriptures, but they refused and went away. I followed Masson D They desire to go for a mutual decision unto the Taghut an idol ; yet verily they have been commanded in the Torah to disbelieve therein, and Satan desires to deceive them into a wide deception. The Victory Al-Fath This IS their likeness in the Torah; and their likeness in the Gospel IS like a seed which sends forth its blade, then makes it strong. It then becomes thick, and it stands on its own stem, and delights the sower. A man scatters seed on the ground As soon as the grain is ripe he puts the sickle to it because the harvest has come. You are to take life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, burn for burn, wound for wound, bruise for bruise. If any fail to judge by what God has revealed, they are licentious. If only the People of the Book had believed and been righteous, we should have blotted out their sins and admitted them to gardens of bliss. If only they had performed the Torah and the Gospel and all that was revealed to them from their Lord, they would have eaten from above and from under their feet. Among them is a People umma on the right course, but evil is that which many of them do Say, "O People of the Book! He appeals to worshiping as the likeness of Muslim believers which is to be found in the Torah, and alludes to growing seed in the Gospel of Jesus as the likeness of believers from the Gospel [D20]. One of the commentators, Ibn Ishaq, relates the following Hadith concerning this passage [D24]. Therefore, I separate myself from your new ideas. You are not founded on anything until you perform the Torah and the Gospel and what was revealed to you from your Lord. And, even if it is not a strong hadith, it is an important testimony to the fact that Muslims of the first and second century of the Hejira knew about a valid Torah and Gospel with them in Arabia. With or without the above hadith, the 24 passages which we have looked at in this section and the 13 from the previous section, make a total of 37 quotations which testify to a true Torah and Gospel being available to the people of Mecca and Medina while Muhammad was alive. Muslims may claim that the true Torah and true Gospel, which were present in Arabia, are different from those presently available. But where are they?!? Surely some Muslim would have preserved such important books in one of the many Muslim libraries found throughout the Islamic world, even if only to help the Jews and Christians obey the Quranic instruction to "perform the Torah and the Gospel". Moreover, we would then be able to compare them with the copies which have been preserved by the Jews and Christians. In fact, this is not the case. No such ancient copies have been preserved by the Muslims. In the introduction to this chapter I said that a true study of a subject must include all the verses - all the data relevant to the subject. Some 55 other Quranic passages also speak of the Torah and the Gospel, but since they neither deny or affirm the presence of these books at the time of Muhammad, only their verse references are listed. Believe in God and His apostle, and the book which He has sent to His apostle and the book Torah which He sent down from before. Here are the references, listed from the earliest to the latest: Every reader is free to look them up and bring one or all of them to the discussion, if he feels that they will change the conclusions.

2: BIBLE VS QURAN – Factual Comparison Of Their Key Differences

Al-Salam-o Alaykum. The Bible is older but the Qur'an is the final and the most complete version of monotheistic scriptures which was revealed to the last Messenger of God.

Part 9 Who wrote Quran? During the last few weeks we discussed on many issues whether Quran was from God or not? From where Muhammad got his revelations? Was Muhammad a prophet or not? What type of life Muhammad lived etc. Muslims say that Bible is not the word of God because it has no known author or that most of the books of the Bible say, "author - unknown". But careful study of the Bible suggests that there are many evidences which indicate that the writers of the Bible were prophets and apostles themselves. For example the first five books of the Bible were written by Moses. Moses writes instructions for the kings of Israel in Deu And it shall be with him, and he shall read it all the days of his life, that he may learn to fear the LORD his God and be careful to observe all the words of this law and these statutes, that his heart may not be lifted above his brethren, that he may not turn aside from the commandment to the right hand or to the left, and that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he and his children in the midst of Israel. This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success. Now the question is, who wrote Quran or who was the author of Quran? Hadith tells us that Muhammad was illiterate and was unable to read or write. So of course Muhammad did not write Quran. Muslims claim that Muhammad dictated the whole Quran to his followers and many of them memorized the Quranic verses word by word and later they wrote it down. The bottom line is that no one knows for sure who wrote the Quran. After the death of Muhammad there was a time when Uthman the third Caliph of Islam ordered to burn all the copies of Quran except one. It was believed that there were variations in text and recitation practice of Quran at that time and so Uthman took this step. According to Quran and Hadith, Muhammad was the last prophet of Islam. So Uthman was not a prophet and we do not know whether he kept the valid and original Quran or destroyed it? We also do not know how he determined which one was the correct version of Quran? Muslims claim that Quran was directly given by Allah and Sheikh Ahmed Deedat the Muslim Scholar and other Muslims have claimed that Quran is the word of God because it was written in first person speech unlike Bible, where third person speech is used. But the very first chapter of Quran is written in the third person speech. Thee do we worship, and Thine aid we seek. Show us the straight way, The way of those on whom Thou hast bestowed Thy Grace, those whose portion is not wrath, and who go not astray. So if we take the word of Muslim Scholars, Quran is not the word of God.

3: The Bible Led me to Islam - IslamiCity

When expressed as a percentage of cruel or violent verses (at least as marked in the SAB/Q), the Quran has about twice that of the Bible. (vs. %).*

We saw our representatives bow their heads to Allah. Be assured that these two events are not random. They are calculated by the devil himself. First of all, our God is a Triune God. Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Look at this passage from the Old Testament: God was telling us from the beginning that He is Triune! I wonder how I missed this as a Jewish child growing up in the synagogue. I wonder even more how the rabbis explain this. Allah is one of three in a Trinity: If they desist not from their word of blasphemy, verily a grievous penalty will befall the blasphemers among them. Not only do they reject this, but they call anyone who believes it a blasphemer! The worst sin a Muslim can commit is called Shirk. Shirk is the belief that God has a Son. It is the unforgivable sin in Islam. Commit no excesses in your religion: Nor say of Allah aught but Truth. So believe in Allah and all His Messengers. It will be better for you: Glory be to him: To Him belong all things in the heavens and on earth. And enough is Allah as a Disposer of affairs. We must believe that Jesus is God to be saved! In Islam, the only unforgivable sin is to believe that Jesus is God. Can you see the devil at work here? Chrislam Pastor Rick Warren and his followers introduced Chrislam to the world. It truly amazes me that some of our so-called leaders in Christianity can have zero discernment. In an attempt to unite the world, they are turning their backs on the Bible and the essential doctrines of our faith. My husband and I used to watch Hillsong services on television. The music was amazing and so worshipful. We thought that Brian Houston, the pastor of Hillsong, was solid in his teaching. A few months ago we were horrified to see that he told his congregation that Allah and the God of the Bible were the same. Needless to say, we stopped watching and listening to him. Most keep it secret. He boldly claims that our God and Allah are one and the same. The head of the Baptist Association in our area hopped on the Chrislam bandwagon over a year ago. He spends much of his time with imams and invites them to many Baptist churches. The same churches are beginning to tell their congregations that our God and Allah are the same. Catholicism has always taught this lie. This is from the book of Catechism from the Roman Catholic Church: The National Cathedral, where the Muslim service was held, is an Episcopal church. This is one of the churches mentioned in my previous article. They teach Replacement Theology, they ordain gays, they detest Israel, and are boycotting products made there. Obviously, they support the Palestinian cause. So, why should we be surprised that they are now worshiping Allah? I am SO thankful that there are Christians who still hold fast to the Word of God, no matter what they hear or read! You are being as the Bereans were: Are YOU in one of these apostate churches? RUN, do not walk to the nearest exit!

4: Quran - Koran, Word of God? - Who wrote Quran?:

You could understandably argue that the current portrayal of God in the bible is not the same as the one portrayed in the Quran. But given the belief in monotheism in Islam, and their belief that the Judaism and Christianity were once the religions of God, many Muslims would say at least in the past, yes, they worshipped Allah.

On Murder and Violence: Islam both allows and forbids murder and violence, depending on who is the recipient of the act. These verses distinguish between warfare against pagans, and against Jews and Christians. Further, make him march in a chain, whereof the length is seventy cubits! This was he that would not believe in Allah Most High. And would not encourage the feeding of the indigent! So no friend hath he here this Day. Nor hath he any food except the corruption from the washing of wounds, Which none do eat but those in sin. Their abode is Hell - an evil refuge indeed" Koran 9: If anyone killed a person not in retaliation for murder or to spread mischief in the land, it would be as if he killed the whole of mankind. And if anyone saved a life, it would be as if he saved the whole of mankind" Surah Al-Maaida 5: Allah does not love the aggressors. Indeed they are the ones who make mischief, but they perceive it not" Surah Al-Baqarah 2: And kill not any old man nor young boy nor child, nor woman, But be good doers for Allah loves those who do good. Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill God destroyed the earth with a flood because of the extent violence had spread: If anyone on that day turns his back to them, except it be for tactical reasons, or to join another band he shall incur the wrath of Allah and Hell shall be his home: For Allah loves not those who do wrong. But I say unto you, do not resist him who is evil; but whoever slaps you on your right cheek, turn to him the other also. Treachery and lying are forbidden.

5: Islam and Christianity - A Comparison of the Bible with the Teachings of Muhammad - Koran

The Allah of Islam, however, is definitely not the God of the Bible. For while Muslims passionately defend the unity of God, they patently deny His triunity. Thus, they recoil at the notion of God as Father, reject the unique deity of Jesus Christ the Son, and renounce the divine identity of the Holy Spirit.

How could the "inspired words" of God get the genealogy of Jesus incorrect See Matthew 1: Or for that matter, give a genealogy to Jesus who had NO father? See II Kings Why is it that the words of these verse are identical? Yet they have been attributed to two different authors, one unknown and the other is Isaiah, who are centuries apart; and yet, the Christians have claimed these books to be inspired by God. I looked up the word Easter in the Nelson Bible dictionary and learned that the word "Easter" as mentioned in Acts I think human hands, all to human, had played havoc with the Bible. From the brief points mentioned above, and the fact that Biblical scholars themselves have recognized the human nature and human composition of the Bible Curt Kuhl, The Old Testament: As a side note to this subject, let me mention that some Christians believe that the Bible was dictated to Prophet Muhammad SAW by a Christian monk, and that is why some of the biblical accounts are in the Quran. After some research, I found that this could not have happened because there were no Arabic Bible in existence in the 6th century of the Christian era when Muhammad SAW lived and preached. Therefore, no Arab, not even Prophet Muhammad SAW who was absolutely unlettered and unlearned, would have had the opportunity to examine the written text of the Bible in his own language. The Gospels If you read Luke 1: Incidentally, why does every "Gospel" begin with the introduction According to. Even the internal evidence of Matthew 9: And he Matthew arose, and followed Him Jesus. It is worth noting, and well known throughout the religious world, that the choice of the present four "gospels" of the New Testament Matthew, Mark, Luke and John were imposed in the Council of Nicea CE for political purposes under the auspices of the pagan Emperor Constantine, and not by Jesus. He was a pagan, a tyrant and criminal who murdered his son, his wife and thousands of innocent individuals because of his lust for political power. Constantine ratified other decisions in the Nicene Creed such as the decision to call Christ "the Son of God, only begotten of the father. The Nicea Council decided to destroy all gospels written in Hebrew, which resulted in the burning of nearly three hundred accounts. If these writings were not more authentic than the four present gospels, they were of equal authenticity. Some of them are still available such as the Gospel of Barnabas and the Shepherd of Hermas which agree with the Quran. The Gospel of Barnabas, until now, is the only eyewitness account of the life and mission of Jesus. The Protestant have bravely expunged seven whole books from their word of God. The word "gospel" is recurrently used in the Bible. However, in the New Testament Greek edition the word Evangeline is used in place of the word gospel, which is translated to mean good news. Of the 27 books of the New Testament, only a small fraction can be accepted as the words of Jesus, and only of the 27 books are known to be attributed as the Gospel of Jesus. The remaining 23 were supposedly written by Paul. Matthew was a tax collector, a minor official who did not travel around with Jesus. By the way, did you know that the names Marks and Luke were not included in the 12 appointed disciples of Jesus as mentioned in Matthew Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; the first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother; Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the publican; James the son of Alphaeus, and Lebbaeus, whose surname was Thaddaeus; Simon the Canaanite, and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him. He John should not be confused with John, the disciple, who was beheaded by Agrippa I in the year 44 CE long before this gospel was written. It should be accepted as a reliable account of the life of Jesus, and whether it should be included in the scriptures. Christians, as I once did, boast about the Gospels according to Matthew, according to Mark, according to Luke and according to John. However, if we think about it, there is not a single Gospel according to Jesus himself. It should be mentioned that Muslims must believe in all Divine scriptures in their original form, their Prophets and making no distinction between them: It is clearly stated in the Quran 3: However, none of these scriptures remains in its original form now, except the Quran, which was sent for all mankind everywhere and for all times. In addition to other reasons why the Quran was sent to mankind, as mentioned in

The "good news" and the guidance of God for the Children of Israel. There is no place mentioned in the present four Gospels that Jesus wrote a single word of his Gospel, nor is it mentioned that Jesus instructed anyone to do so. What passes off, as the "Gospels" today are the works of third party human hands. So woe to them for what their hands do write, and woe to them for what they earn thereby! However, many references were found in the Old and New Testaments that mentioned someone other than Jesus as having a divine Sonship to God. The word "Son" must not be accepted literally because God addresses many of his chosen servants as son and sons. The Jews have also claimed Ezra to be the Son of God. The New Testament Greek words used for "son" hios and paida, which mean servant or son in the sense of servant are translated as son in reference to Jesus and as servant in reference to others in some translations of the Bible. Further, the term "Father" as used by Jesus corresponds more closely to the term Rabb, i. The New Testament also interprets "son of God" to be mystical: This mystical suggestion is further supported with Jesus being called the only begotten Son of God. Thou art my son: Jesus also said that God is not only his Father but also your Father Matthew 5: Seth, which was the son of Adam, which was the Son of God. It is Melchisedec, King of Salem, as mentioned in Hebrews 7: He Melchisedec is more unique than Jesus or Adam. Why is he not preferred to be the Son of God? Moreover, Adam did not have a mother or father, but was the first human being created by God and in the likeness of God to exist in the Garden of Eden and on earth. I would like to share with you an obvious contradiction between John 3: And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said unto him, what is written in the law? And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself. And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: These verses tell us that the inheritance of eternal life is for anyone who believes and worships no other God, but the One True God. But if you want to enter into eternal life, keep the commandments. Advertisement In Luke 4: Do you think that Jesus would rebuke the demons, or anyone else for that matter, for telling the truth? Jesus rebuked the demons because they were saying something false by calling him the Son of God. Peter answered saying, "The Christ of God, and Jesus straightly charged them and commanded them to tell no man that thing. The most conclusive verse that says Jesus is the son servant of man is Mark Jesus specifically said we would see the son of man, not the Son of God, sitting in the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven. Glory be to Him! When He determines a matter He only says to it "Be," and it is. The answer is no. For there is no single, unequivocal statement in the Bible whereby Jesus himself declares, "I am God, therefore worship me. Christ came, who is overall, the eternally blessed God. Thus, it is the Christians whose efforts will be wasted in this life as they think they were acquiring good by their works when they attribute partners to God, as stated in Chapter Shall we tell you of those who lost most in respect of their deeds? Those whose efforts have been wasted in this life, while they thought that they were acquiring good by their works? Paul should have made direct reference to the pristine teachings of Jesus, if only the former claim for apostleship by divine inspiration was indeed true. His epistles were, indeed a product of tedious efforts, but that does not make Paul far better than any of the other men who authored the Bible, nor does it make him a Prophet. Other practices that were adopted under Paul included the following: As I come to a close concerning the position of Christ, I would like to ask my Christian reader bow down and pray earnestly to God and ask Him to invoke His curse on you, your wife, your sons, and your daughters if what you believe about Christ Christ is God, Son of God or part of a trinity of God are false. Likewise, I have learned that if you asked a Muslim to earnestly pray to God to invoke His curse on him, his wife, his sons, and his daughters if what he is saying about Christ Prophet, Messenger of God, A Word from God are false, the Muslims are firm in their faith knowing that Christ is not God, nor the Son of God and nor part of a trinity of God. This exercise of asking God to invoke His curse on you and your family may sound a bit cruel, but it would prove two points: Did any one of the disciples or the writers of the Gospel see the Crucifixion or the Resurrection? Even Peter forsook Jesus after the cock crowed three times as Jesus foretold: And he went out, and wept bitterly. However, there is no statement or account in the Gospels from those women as to what they saw or heard. The disciples found the sepulchre where Jesus was laid down, empty, and made the conclusion that he was resurrected because the disciples and other witnesses saw him alive after the alleged Crucifixion. Nobody saw the moment he was resurrected. Jesus himself stated that he did not die on the cross in Luke. Early Sunday morning, Mary Magdalene went to the sepulchre, which was empty. She saw somebody standing who looked like a gardener. She recognized him after a conversation to be Jesus and wanted to touch him. Jesus said John. But they were terrified and frightened, and supposed that they had seen a spirit. And he said unto them, Why are you troubled? And why so thoughts arise in your hearts? Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: And when he had thus spoken, he showed them his hands and his feet.

6: Biblical and Quranic narratives - Wikipedia

The Quran was written about years after the Bible and affirms the Bible as the word of God, less the alleged Tahrif. By contrast, the Bible refutes the Quran in its entirety with a stern warning in its final paragraph that nothing is to be added to or deleted from the Bible.

With that said, the one thing that I do respect and appreciate about the discussion with Alex is that he did bring scripture to the table, unlike many people that just leave claims without any scripture references to back those claims. In that regard, many believers can learn a lot from him. Some of the conversation has been reordered in order to address everything topic by topic vs a play by play response, because it did go from subject to subject and back again. I believe in the Bible, but I also believe that there are historical truths in other books such as the Quran, Book of Mormon, etc. However, while I do view other books as valuable for historical reference, I do not put the same stock in them spiritually as I do scripture. If we all did that, we could avoid many of the false teachings that people attempt to push. With that being said I am inclined to share truth as God has allowed me to discern it. I notice that people have difficulty worshiping and believing in God without humanizing the All mighty. From the beginning Genesis we notice the initial humanization of the Most High: Then God blessed the seventh day and sanctified it, because in it He rested from all His work which God had created and made. King David said something similar in the book of Psalms , revealed to him by the Highest: Error 1 “ Disregarding What The Bible Says Anyone that claims a book has errors and then still attempts to use it in a debate has already failed their debate. Why use it at all? Error 2 “ Assumption of The Humanization of God The statement that human beings have a hard time worshiping or believing in God without humanizing him is a little backwards. This is an incorrect line of thinking. It explains that humans are gods made in the image of God, and will be ultimately transformed into immortal beings with abilities similar to what Christ exhibited after his resurrection. Christ addressed what he and the Father do, and not what mankind was told to do. The purpose of the Sabbath is also explained in the book of Mark: Therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath. The claim that Christ was correcting what Moses wrote in Genesis has no real basis. He was correcting the misunderstanding of the Pharisees, and not scripture. Muslims want to use the Bible in an attempt to prove parts of the Quran. Muslims want to disregard any portion of the Bible that disproves the Quran. If Christ was telling the truth, then the Quran is a lie when it denies that he is equal to God. Believers in the Quran should clear that up if they want to be taken seriously when it comes to their version of Biblical interpretation. I believe there is a verse in revelations that refutes your Galatians verse: Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: Certainly fits the description, this is exactly what is preached in Quran. And for the record, you have to believe in Jesus to be Muslim and you have to believe he is the Messiah to be Muslim. This is the same gospel that is referenced times in scripture. Alex strips several things from context here. The only way around the straight forward reading is to change angels into something else, change flying into something else, and ignore all references to what the everlasting gospel is. The following 6 angels are LITERAL angels, which means that in context angel 1 would be a literal angels as well, and not a prophets in the future. This is easily proven to be false by simply reading what the angel preached: We know this because Christ is called the creator multiple times all over the Bible a message which the Quran does NOT teach, which is more proof that the Quran is a different Gospel. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. We can also verify that this is not a different gospel because of how Christ identifies himself. Mine hand also hath laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand hath spanned the heavens: The denial of Christ as the son of God and savior of mankind is a different gospel. So therefore, it is beyond a stretch to claim that the angel in Revelation is preaching a different gospel simply because one wants to twist scripture to suit their own belief. The problem is with an angel that may or may not be Gabriel, pushing a blasphemy that denies Christ as the son of God and the savior which as was pointed out earlier, is clearly taught in the Bible. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works. The only way around that curse is if the Bible is a lie, which means using it to defend or try to prove the Quran is pointless. If it is true, then we must also admit that anything received from that angel is cursed, and so are those that follow and preach the false doctrine contained within the pages.

Error 7 – Lack of Understanding The book of Revelation deals with the last days on earth. It has nothing to do with the Quran at all whatsoever. Those that try to push this false belief have clearly ignored the books of Isaiah, Ezekiel, Jeremiah, Joel, etc. Nothing in the Bible has anything to do with the coming of Muhammad.

The False Teaching of Multiple Creations People that quickly skim the Bible without reading for understanding, often fall into the trap of completely making things up. One such thing is the false teaching of multiple creations. In Genesis there are 2 creation stories of Adam man. So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat. And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for meat: And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day. But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground. And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul. So If man is made in the image of God then logically it is our soul that is made in that image, not our bodies. Genesis 2 is a more detailed description of the day 6 creation. Job 38 is a more detailed description of all the days of creation. John 1 is a more detailed description of Genesis 1: We run into trouble when we fail to read the ENTIRE text for context, and immediately espouse a belief based on a single verse or even a few verses. According to the words that Alex himself provided from Genesis 2: Alex also claims that these verses do not mean that God had a body, and yet we see God creating humans with both body and spirit. The fact is God himself describes his body parts all over the Bible: God has a mouth: Human beings look similar to God. In addition to that, having a body does not make one a man or a human. Angels Animals Insects All have body parts, but none of them are human. When you do it to an even more severe degree. Like how I cross referenced these verses: Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads. It is the mark that is received on the forehead who frequently prostrates to their Lord. Cherry picking is finding a single verse WITHOUT context and then attempting to use it to prove your point regardless of the context of the rest of the text – similar to what Alex did in his arguments about the creation, the Sabbath, and here again in reference to the seal of God.

Error 11 – Ignoring Clear Explanations Revelation 7 explains itself in detail, so how Alex came up with his interpretation of who the sealed of God are can only be found in the deception of the Quran or the deception of Islamic teachings. There are some Christian denominations that get it wrong as well. He intentionally stripped the context in order to make it fit his preconceived belief. This is error and self deception. Israel is not Ishmael, so there is no connection to anything remotely related to Islam, the Quran, or anyone from the lineage of Ishmael in these verses. After being corrected, Alex then responded with the following: I will address your rebuttal. I am in agreement with you about the seal being a protection from God, and that is clearly stated in the verse I referenced. We disagree in who receives the seal. In Islam, we have what is called the mark of prostration which is given to a person who sincerely and humbly bows and prostrates to their Lord. It is not necessarily a physical marking on the forehead; some scholars think it is more of a light or radiance that is found on the face of that person. However, an actual discoloration can occur on the forehead dependent upon the surface the person prostrates on. In Islam, we believe that the mark of prostration is protection from the fire. However, we differ on who the true worshipers are. I do apologize for the confusion. And as long as you are willing to maintain a conversation with me, I will attempt to answer your rebuttals and questions as thoroughly as I am able, and as my Lord has granted. Cain also shows repentance in his words, which is why God placed a mark of protection over him read the entire chapter for context. While Alex is right about the mark being placed on believers, at no point do we see Cain receiving the mark because he was a prostrate worshiper. And to the others he said in mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite: Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: Then they began at the ancient men which were before the house. The people that are sealed are upset about what is going on, but there is no mention of prostration or Muslims.

WHICH IS FROM GOD? THE QURAN, OR THE BIBLE? pdf

7: Apologetics Press - Allah vs. the God of the Bible

The Word of God in Islam and Christianity. When it comes to the Bible and Qur'an, it is easy for Muslims and Christians to talk past one another. Christians believe the Bible is the Word of God and Muslims believe the Qur'an is the Word of God.

Belief in the scriptures revealed by God is the third article of Islamic faith. We can identify four main reasons for the revelation of scriptures: God reveals Himself and explains the purpose of human creation through revealed scriptures. At the present time, the Quran revealed to our Prophet Muhammad, may the mercy and blessings of God be upon him, is the only scripture to remain safe from corruption. They are not allowed to oppose or overstep it. A Muslim firmly believes that divinely revealed books were actually revealed by the Compassionate God to His prophets to guide mankind. Muslims uphold and respect the following scriptures: Fourth, Islam affirms that God revealed the Quran as a witness over the previous scriptures and confirmation of them, because He says therein: Original Scriptures and the Bible We must distinguish between two matters: No divine scripture exists today in the original language it was revealed in, except the Quran. The Bible was not revealed in English. These multiple translations were done by people whose knowledge, skill, or honesty is not known. As a result, some bibles are larger than others and have contradictions and internal inconsistencies! The Quran, on the other hand, is the only scripture in existence today in its original language and words. Not one letter of the Quran has been changed since its revelation. It is internally consistent with no contradictions. It is today as it was revealed years ago, transmitted by a rock-solid tradition of memorization and writing. Unlike other sacred texts, the entire Quran has been memorized by almost every Islamic scholar and hundreds of thousands of ordinary Muslims, generation after generation! The previous scriptures essentially consist of: The stories, prophecies, and news in the Bible read in churches and synagogues today are partly true and partly false. These books consist of some translated fragments of the original scripture revealed by God, words of some prophets, mixed with explanations of scholars, errors of scribes, and outright malicious insertions and deletions. Quran, the final and trustworthy scripture, helps us sort out fact from fiction. For a Muslim, it is the criterion to judge the truth from the falsehood in these stories. If we were to assume the law, that is the lawful and the prohibited, contained in the previous books did not suffer corruption, the Quran still abrogates those rulings, it cancels the old law which was suitable for its time and is no longer applicable today. The Holy Quran The Quran is different from other scriptures in the following respects: Nothing similar to it can be produced by human beings. Just as the Prophet Muhammad is the last prophet, the Quran is the last scripture. On the other hand, previous scriptures suffered alteration and distortion and do not remain in their originally revealed form. The Law of the old scriptures is no longer applicable; the previous rulings have been abrogated with the new Law of Islam.

8: Bible or Quran? Quiz

According to the Quran, the Bible is the Word of God. The Quran says, " we bestowed on him (Isa) the Gospel wherein is guidance and a light, confirming that which was (revealed) before it in the Torah" (Qs).

Its liturgical context is seen in a number of passages, for example: The latter two terms also denote units of revelation. Islamic tradition relates that Muhammad received his first revelation in the Cave of Hira during one of his isolated retreats to the mountains. Thereafter, he received revelations over a period of 23 years. According to hadith and Muslim history, after Muhammad immigrated to Medina and formed an independent Muslim community, he ordered many of his companions to recite the Quran and to learn and teach the laws, which were revealed daily. It is related that some of the Quraysh who were taken prisoners at the Battle of Badr regained their freedom after they had taught some of the Muslims the simple writing of the time. Thus a group of Muslims gradually became literate. As it was initially spoken, the Quran was recorded on tablets, bones, and the wide, flat ends of date palm fronds. The agent of revelation is mentioned as the "one mighty in power", [36] the one who "grew clear to view when he was on the uppermost horizon. The Quran describes Muhammad as "ummi", [39] which is traditionally interpreted as "illiterate," but the meaning is rather more complex. Medieval commentators such as Al-Tabari maintained that the term induced two meanings: For example, according to Fakhr al-Din al-Razi , if Muhammad had mastered writing and reading he possibly would have been suspected of having studied the books of the ancestors. Some scholars such as Watt prefer the second meaning of "ummi" – they take it to indicate unfamiliarity with earlier sacred texts. The verse was revealed after the Prophet finished delivering his sermon at Ghadir Khumm. The first caliph, Abu Bakr d. Zayd ibn Thabit d. Thus, a group of scribes, most importantly Zayd, collected the verses and produced a hand-written manuscript of the complete book. The manuscript according to Zayd remained with Abu Bakr until he died. In about , the third Caliph Uthman ibn Affan d. That text became the model from which copies were made and promulgated throughout the urban centers of the Muslim world, and other versions are believed to have been destroyed. Despite this, he made no objection against the standardized Quran and accepted the Quran in circulation. However, the faint washed-off underlying text scriptio inferior is still barely visible and believed to be "pre-Uthmanic" Quranic content, while the text written on top scriptio superior is believed to belong to Uthmanic time. The manuscript is written in Hijazi script , an early form of written Arabic.

9: Which is more violent, the Bible or the Quran?

Is the Bible or the Quran the Word of God? If Jesus did not die on the cross, then the Bible can't be the Word of God. On the other hand, if Jesus was crucified and died on the cross, then can the Quran be the Word of God?

An honest and objective reading of both the Quran and the Bible reveals a significant clash between the two both in terms of how to conceptualize God, as well as in their respective depictions of the behavior of deity. Allah says and does things that the God of the Bible did not and would not say or do. All do so with the exception of Iblis i. And remember when thy Lord said unto the angels: So the angels fell prostrate, all of them together save Iblis. He refused to be among the prostrate. What aileth thee that thou art not among the prostrate? Then go thou forth from hence, for verily thou art outcast. This characterization of deity is completely unacceptable. This one incident alone illustrates that Allah is not the God of the Bible. The God of the Bible simply would not do what the Quran says He did. Numerous Bible verses convey the complete improprietyâ€”even blasphemyâ€”that the worship of a mere human constitutes. Humans are forbidden to worship other humans Acts Humans are forbidden to worship angels Colossians 2: And, most certainly, angels are not to worship mere humans. The Law of Moses declared that worship is to be directed to God Deuteronomy 6: When Satan tempted Jesus, and Satan urged Jesus to worship him, Jesus quoted the deuteronomic declaration from the Law of Moses, and then added His own divine commentary: No one, and no thing, is the rightful object of worshipâ€”except deity! Satan recognized that not only should angels not worship humans, but in view of his own angelic condition, Adam occupied a status that was beneath his own accelerated, celestial existenceâ€”a fact affirmed by the Bible: We are happy to grant permission for items in the "Islam and Other World Religions" section to be reproduced in part or in their entirety, as long as the following stipulations are observed: For catalog, samples, or further information, contact:

Haynes Jeep Wrangler 1987 thru 1999 Embroidery Design Parametric Modeling with Autodesk Inventor 2008
50 user experience best practices Toyota owners manual supplement Partnership between the parties:
community of interests The making of American liberal theology Machine generated contents note: 1.
Schuldig, keiner Schuld bewußt?: Stranger blood P.C. Hodgell Bad neighbors short story Orthodox socialism
The play of As you like it. Vrm section of motherboard Changing patterns about men, money and romance Liquid sloshing dynamics Behavior dynamics in teaching, learning, and growth History of Andres Serrano, a history of sex Yr Key Suc Law Sch The Image, the Depths and the Surface Awakening your psychic skills Investments 10th edition Ways of ing 9th edition Business management and industrial economics Color Harmony: Logos Bk. 1. Articles 1-113 and other penal laws Neurobiology of Hearing The Tub That Became a Boat (Gill, Janie Spaht. Predictable Word Book. 1a, Beginner.) Expanding on the procedural model
Maha-bharata (The Epic of Ancient India Condensed into English Verse) The Sorcerer of Hooterville A Taste of the Ionian Islands I m not afraid of anything sheet music Human factors and ergonomics design handbook Teachings of Jesus (Pulse 4) Issues concerning the future operation of the space transportation system The creative curriculum for preschool lesson plan template Kentucky survival (HRW basic education) A girls story toni cade bambara Glossary of marketing management terms Tom Swift and His Air Scout, or, Uncle Sams Mastery of the Sky (Dodo Press)