

1: What to Do If you Need Healing | Christian Faith

Reverend Pablo Diaz shares how you can use the power of prayer to bring positive changes to your life.

God has arranged things so that our faith for today gets tested. This happens in a number of ways. For example, God often has us wait upon Him for answers to specific prayers. And yet it is in those confusing times that our faith is stretched and expanded. Or maybe He is waiting for you to continue praying until the ultimate answer is given. God wants you to know that He is honored and pleased when you keep bringing the need before Him in prayer. This is actually one of the most precious insights concerning persistent prayer. Jesus said, "Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened to you. The Lord never tires of hearing from His children. In fact, He desires to have us trust Him enough to continue praying even if we have already prayed about it "a bunch of times. If so, keep coming back to your heavenly Father over and over again. He loves it when His children demonstrate that much faith. And be sure to give the Lord thanksgiving and praise in the midst of your persistent praying. I wonder how many times we have given up praying just before the Lord was about to pour out a wonderful blessing. If we know God loves us, then we can know He will only give us what is best for us as part of His divine plan in our life. This certainty leads us to be extremely confident in our prayers. Jesus is our Savior. When we pray, we need to remember the basis upon which God hears and answers our prayers. It is always for the sake of Christ. Without His sacrifice on our behalf, we would have no access to our Father in heaven. But through Jesus, we have an open line 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Here is how Scripture describes this incredible access: God already knows how serious He is about answering our prayers. Now He wants to see how seriously we believe Him not only for our eternal life in heaven, but also for the concerns of this life here on earth. Trusting God for the needs of today, however, is where our life of discipleship really gets put to the test. And persistent prayers of faith tell God a lot about how much His children trust Him and believe His promises. Just think if our faith for today was as strong as our faith for eternity. Imagine how many more answers to prayer would be taking place all around us and around those we love. And there is no better place to be than in the will of God. So be encouraged today my friend. Through Christ, you can talk to your heavenly Father about anything, anytime, anywhere. After all, that is exactly what you were created to do in the first place. 2: James5 NLT - Warning to the Rich - Look here, you - Bible Gateway

Your Prayers Produce Wonderful Results When Jesus was crucified on the cross, not only did He wash away all your sins with His precious blood, but He also gave you His very own righteousness as a gift.

The results are often greater than we thought were possible. Some people see prayer as a last resort to be tried when all else fails. This approach is backward. Prayer should come first. They should keep on praying about it. And those who have reason to be thankful should continually sing praises to the Lord. Are any among you sick? They should call for the elders of the church and have them pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord. And their prayer offered in faith will heal the sick, and the Lord will make them well. And anyone who has committed sins will be forgiven. Confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The earnest prayer of a righteous person has great power and wonderful results. Elijah was as human as we are, and yet when he prayed earnestly that no rain would fall, none fell for the next three and a half years! Then he prayed for rain, and down it poured. The grass turned green, and the crops began to grow again. I realized that prayer fits with this commandment: I can show love for others through praying for them. As I continued to recall scripture verses, I remembered that James 5: Loving God, as we pray for others, may they know your powerful, loving presence in their lives this day and always. What is it that will stop me from saying God is good in , I command you to die now in Jesus name! Father, overwhelm me with the spirit of gratitude and thanksgiving in Jesus name! O Lord, I free myself from every attitude of ingratitude now in Jesus name! I command every trace of ingratitude, its my right mentality to come out of my life now in Jesus name! I receive the heart, spirit and attitude of gratitude in Jesus name! And pray that you might be strong enough to escape these coming horrors and stand before the Son of Man. But Elijah climbed to the top of Mount Carmel and bowed low to the ground and prayed with his face between his knees. Do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. My maids and I will do the same. And then, though it is against the law, I will go in to see the king. If I must die, I must die. Then many people will give thanks because God has graciously answered so many prayers for our safety. He prayed three times a day, just as he had always done, giving thanks to his God. He still prays to his God three times a day.

4: How To Get Great Results When You Pray

Lesson 8 The Results of Prayer The results of prayer for the Christian are wonderful. There are both objective and subjective results of prayer.

Ascension Research Center does not guarantee the accuracy of any content on this site or on any external sites linked to us. It is a longing of the soul. It is a wonderful source of joy, comfort and spiritual upliftment for millions of people the world over and still remains one of the most effective means of connecting with God or whatever you choose to call the Creator. It can be as simple as a "thank you" to the universe, or deep and holy prayer uttered from the heart. Here are some simple practices you can use to increase the power of your own prayer: The early morning or just before going to bed are good times to pray. It also helps if you have a routine place to pray in. Find a clean place that is well lit and aired. You can set up a small altar with some candles, flowers and crystals, and favorite pictures of saints or angels, pictures of loved ones or friends in need of healing. This is your private space for going within so make sure you feel comfortable with it. You can also ask the Angels or your Higher Self to help you pray. When you pray, it is your Christ Self who goes before God to intercede for you. There are some mantras you can use to help God and your Holy Christ Self to help you. Jesus once appeared to the fourteenth century saint, Catherine of Sienna, as she was praying and said to her: If you know these two things, you would be blessed. If you have This Knowledge in your soul, the enemy can never deceive you; you will escape all His snares; you will never consent to anything contrary to My Commandments; and without difficulty you will acquire every Grace, every Truth, every Light. Every time she recited it, she was emptying herself for the Divine to enter. You can also use this mantra before praying to draw closer to your Holy Christ Self. Jesus affirmed this when He said: It is the Father in Me which doeth the work. It is a Spiritual Flame that burns within your heart, and can increase in size by the power of fervent prayer. This Spiritual Flame has three "plumes" which embody the primary attributes of God: Love, Wisdom and Power. This Flame is the "Kingdom of Heaven" within that Jesus spoke about. An eleventh-century Byzantine saint called Symeon the New Theologian spoke of this Flame in the heart: I see a Light which the world does not possess. Sitting in the cell I see within me the Creator of the world. At all times have all living beings the Germ of Buddha-hood in them. Center In Your Heart We all use our outer consciousness in daily activities. But in prayer, we need to turn our consciousness inward. By doing this you are "going into the closet to pray". You are shutting your consciousness to the outside world to go within and spend time with God. You can do this through a simple exercise. First, concentrate on your heart and imagine you are breathing through your heart. Then visualize a brilliant Sun of Light above you. It is so bright it is almost blinding. Then see this Sun gently descending into your heart. See yourself entering this brilliant Sphere of Light, where you find your own special prayer place. Ascended Masters are Spiritual Beings who once walked the earth like you and me. They balanced their karma, fulfilled Their reason for being and reunited with, or Ascended back to, God. Talk to Them about what is on your heart. We all need money and other possessions to live in a material world, and God is more than happy to supply us with these things if it will bring us closer to Him. But God knows what is the best possible Gift for us at any moment. So instead of asking that our prayer be answered as we want, you can ask that your prayer "be adjusted according to the Will of God" to receive the answer that is best for you and for the souls whom you are praying for. There is Power in your voice. God used this Power when He said "Let there be Light. You can increase the power of your prayer by mentally seeing the answers to your prayers. Always picture something better than you are experiencing now, and see the answers to your prayers come to life, just like a movie. You can also visualize brilliant Light surrounding the situation or problem. If you are working with a particular Master or Angel, see Them interceding on your behalf. For example, if you are having difficulty forgiving someone, concentrate on feelings of Peace, Understanding and Forgiveness. See the two of you hugging, making up and being friends. See that newfound friendship getting stronger with understanding and acceptance. Let Go You can increase the power of your prayer by letting go and turning over to God whatever you are praying about. When you do this, your prayer soars Heavenward, allowing God and His Angels to work on answering it without hindrance.

For many, waiting for the answers to their prayers is their greatest test. They often become discouraged and give up just as God is about to answer their prayers. Gratitude is the Law of Increase. Amen" You can also express your Gratitude throughout the day to God and send Him thanks for the answers to your prayers. God may be trying to lead you in another direction that will be more beneficial for you. Many people have had their prayers answered even years later when they forgot all about them. Be Specific The more specific you are in your prayers, the better God is able to answer you. As long as you are living your life in Harmony and devoting your energy to helping others, God will help you with the smallest details of your life. If you need a Spiritual Gift, such as Compassion, explain the nature of the problem, such as judgment or criticism, when and where it appears, with whom and how. Ask God to help you overcome it, and be willing to follow His Guidance from your heart. It can help to make a list of all the things you need help with to be more specific. Ask yourself what you want out of your prayers. You can recite the list each day in prayer, ticking things off as they are answered, and adding new things as they arise. When we can surrender our desires to God and allow Him to give us what He wants, we open ourselves up to an Infinite Source of Abundance. Act as if you are worthy, and a sense of worthiness will follow. You are a loving and precious child of God and deserve all that He has to offer. The Power of Affirmations and Decrees Another popular form of self-development is the affirmation. Affirmations are positive statements that affirm what you want to do or what you are seeking to become. Every time you say "I AM. When you affirm "I AM Illumination", you are saying that God in you is attracting more of the Quality of Illumination that you possess. It is more powerful than other affirmations like "I will. One particularly powerful form of affirmation-prayer is called the decree. Decrees are a step-up on all forms of prayer and release tremendous amounts of Spiritual Energy because they combine prayer, meditation and visualization in the one exercise. Prayer is more devotional and comes from the heart chakra, while visualization is an exercise of your spiritual sight, or third eye, and meditation is more an exercise of illumination, which is centered in the crown chakra. I AM the Purity God desires! Material in this article is based on the following books by Elizabeth Clare Prophet:

6: The earnest prayer of a righteous person has | Daily WellSpiration

The earnest prayer of a righteous person has great power and produces wonderful www.enganchecubano.com b NLT. Attach Your Emotions. Whenever something is wrong with me or I have something that I desire, my husband's first question is, "Did you pray about it yet?"

From energeis; to be active, efficient. To have strength, be strong, be in full health and vigor, be able; metonymy: From ischus; to have force. There, the sin would of necessity have been confessed to the elders, before the prayer of faith could deal with it. The context here forbids any wider meaning. Some of the ablest and greatest have admitted "that we cannot certainly affirm sacramental confession to have been meant or spoken of in this place" Hooker. The most laborious investigation of history and theology will alone answer the question properly; and here only a brief resume is possible. There can be little doubt that, strictly consonant with the apostolic charge, open confession was the custom of old. Offenders hastened to some minister of God, and in words, by which all present in the congregation might take notice of the fault, declared their guilt; convenient remedies were as publicly prescribed, and then all present joined in prayer to God. But after awhile, for many patent reasons, this plain talk about sins was rightly judged to be a cause of mischief to the young and innocent; and such confessions were relegated to a private hearing. The change was in most ways beneficial, and hardly suspected of being a step in a completely new doctrine. It needed years--centuries, in fact--to develop into the hard system of compulsory individual bondage which cost Europe untold blood and treasure to break asunder. A salutary practice in the case of some unhappy creatures, weakened by their vices into a habit of continual sin, was scarcely to be conceived as a rule thrust upon all the Christian world. Yet such it was, and "at length auricular confession, followed by absolution and satisfaction, was elevated to the full dignity of a necessary sacrament. The Council of Trent anathematizes all who deny it to be truly and properly a sacrament instituted by Christ Himself, and necessary to salvation jure divino; or who say that the method of confessing secretly to the priest alone. Marvellous perversity of acute brains and worthy sentiment, showing only how steep is the way of error; and how for Christian as for Jew the danger of tradition is perilous indeed. No, no; these opinions have youth in their countenance. Antiquity knew them not; it never thought nor dreamed of them" E. And if an ancient custom has become a universal practice in the Latin communion, presumed to be of sacramental virtue, scholars will tell us that the notion has never been absent altogether from any branch of the Catholic Church; and that in some shape or form, it lives in most of those societies which sprang into existence at the Reformation largely from abhorrence of the tyranny and misuse of confession. The effectual fervent prayer. It moves the hand of Him Who moves the world. For so the whole round earth is, every way, Bound by gold chains about the feet of God. Some divines trace a literal force in the passage, finding in it an allusion to the Energumens of the first century the "mediums" of that age, who were possessed by demons; that, just as these unhappy beings strove in their bondage, so equally--nay, infinitely more--should Christians "wrestle with the Lord. It is difficult to know exactly what to make of this injunction to confess "one to another," which is stated in the form of an inference from the preceding. The form of the expression, "one to another," and the perfectly general term, "a righteous man," forbid us to see in it a direct injunction to confess to the clergy, and to the clergy only. But on the other hand, it is unfair to lose sight of the fact that it is directly connected with the charge to send for the elders of the Church. The effectual fervent prayer, etc. Matthew Henry Commentary 5: This sin brings neither gain, nor pleasure, nor reputation, but is showing enmity to God without occasion and without advantage It shows a man to be an enemy to God, however he pretends to call himself by his name, or sometimes joins in acts of worship. But the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain. In a day of affliction nothing is more seasonable than prayer. The spirit is then most humble, and the heart is broken and tender. It is necessary to exercise faith and hope under afflictions; and prayer is the appointed means for obtaining and increasing these graces. Observe, that the saving of the sick is not ascribed to the anointing with oil, but to prayer. In a time of sickness it is not cold and formal prayer that is effectual, but the prayer of faith. The great thing we should beg of God for ourselves and others in the time of sickness is, the pardon of sin. To acknowledge our faults to each other, will tend greatly to peace and brotherly love. And when a righteous person, a true believer, justified in Christ, and by his grace walking before God in holy obedience, presents an effectual fervent prayer, wrought in his heart by the power of the Holy Spirit, raising holy affections and believing expectations and so leading earnestly to plead the promises of God at his mercy-seat, it avails much. The power of prayer is proved from the history of Elijah. In prayer we must not look to the merit of man, but to the grace of God. It is not enough to say a prayer, but we must pray in prayer. Thoughts must be fixed, desires must be firm and ardent, and graces exercised. This instance of the power of prayer, encourages every Christian to be earnest in prayer. God never says to any of the seed of Jacob, Seek my face in vain.

7: Divine Exchange Now: PRAYER, POWER & WONDERFUL RESULTS FASTING AND PRAYER MANUA

Prayer is one of the oldest forms of devotion on the planet. It is a wonderful source of joy, comfort and spiritual upliftment for people.

So, just as it is possible to be freed from sin and its consequences, it should also be possible to be healed of our diseases. The Bible also says concerning believers that "they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover" Mark. But you also may need to have faith in Jesus as healer, and believe that He is working through this activity of the laying on of hands. Such a faith can only come through personal relationship with God. We need to depend on the Holy Spirit in these things. Sometimes a minister with the gift of healing or miracles can minister healing to a believer through the laying on of hands. God wants you well in your body. Jesus paid for it. But even more than that, He wants you right in your soul. So if you are a believer in Jesus, and have received truth from God in your heart, there may be a problem if you are refusing to do what you know what God wants you to do. In the same way, if you as a Christian are doing things you know are not pleasing to God, your faith to receive may be affected. You need to seek repentance and deliverance. You should receive healing easily. God will do it to show you He loves you. But after that, you would be very wise to put your trust in Jesus for salvation. It is important to realize that Jesus is Lord, and He has the right to be Lord of your life also. That is because you only exist because of Him, and then He paid for your life with His own infinitely valuable life. So please - go and find a spirit-filled Christian evangelist who believes in healing and you will know in your own body that Jesus is real. After that, do what you think is right. The earnest prayer of a righteous person has great power and produces wonderful results. After you have covered all of these, then confess the following three sins which are almost certainly part of the problem: Ignorance As a believer, are you aware of the provision of God in the area of healing which is made available for you? Have you studied the Scriptures on this subject? If you have not, you need to do this, and get rid of all ignorance. The Bible says, "My people are destroyed from lack of knowledge. Because you have rejected knowledge, I also reject you as my priests; because you have ignored the law of your God, I also will ignore your children. Your ignorance will cost you. So please, do yourself a favour and put some value on what the Bible says about healing. Find the promises and meditate on them until your thinking changes. You may have tremendous faith in other areas but not in this one. OK, good - but this is the area God wants you to believe Him in also. So what can you do? You can tell Jesus, "Lord, I believe. Help my unbelief" like the man did in Mark 9: Jesus can work with that kind of honesty and humility. You can fast - go without food. Jesus said, "This kind only comes out by prayer and fasting. In Isaiah 58 it says, "Your healing shall spring forth speedily" Isaiah. If you do this, you will be amazed at what happens. Make sure you have forgiven everyone who has hurt you. Many times, when Christians take this vital step, a lot of blessings from God are suddenly released that were held from them until that time. A man with no pride within, who walks in perfect humility before the Lord, will get grace and empowerment for anything God wants to do. If God seems to be resisting us, we need to humble ourselves. Again, fasting is a key. Do this, and whatever else God shows you. Other Sins to Confess and Repent of if they are there Sexual immorality is offensive to God, and Jesus said he will cast sexually immoral people onto a sickbed because of this sin - see Revelation 2: Paul once handed a sexually immoral believer over to Satan 1 Corinthians 5. If God hands you over to Satan for any reason, no minister is going to get you healed just by laying hands on you. Neither will you get healed just by claiming the promise or statement "By His stripes I am healed", You are going to need to repent first.
